action resulted in the immediate restoration of approximately 400 square meters of prime Government land to public use.

Simultaneously, eviction proceedings were conducted at North Bay, leading to the removal of additional encroachments. The swift and coordinated response of enforcement teams helped reinforce the message that encroachments will not be tolerated under any circumstances.

Meanwhile, in Bambooflat village under Ferrargunj Tehsil, Revenue Authorities continued their crackdown, expanding the eviction drive initiated the previous day. Several unauthorized structures were removed, and encroachers were issued strict warnings against further attempts to grab Government land. Altogether, a total of 1000 square meters of land has been successfully reclaimed and restored to its original status at North Bay and Bambooflat village.

Further, in response to a complaint regarding fresh encroachment over Government Revenue land at Temple Myo, the encroachment covering a total area of 1244.08 hectares in the form of a temporary hut in its initial stage was demolished and approximately 200 square meters of Government Revenue land were restored.

Residents are strongly urged to refrain from unauthorized occupations, as stringent legal action will be taken against violators. To strengthen public participation in this initiative, the District Administration, South Andaman has provided multiple avenues for reporting encroachments or illegal constructions. Citizens can contact the District Control Room at 03192-240127/238881/1070 or share information via WhatsApp at 9531888844. All reports will be handled with absolute confidentiality, ensuring the privacy of individuals who come forward to report such activities. The eviction drive will continue in the coming days, reinforcing the District Administration's resolve to protect Government land and ensure its proper utilization for the benefit of the community, a press release from DC (SA) said.

(Manipuri), Swapan Kumar Biswas (Bengali) & Samhita Veda Acharya (English).

In his opening remarks, Shri Benyamin thanked the Sahitya Akademi, New Delhi for inviting him and other noted writers and poets for this Literary Festival being held in this picturesque place. He said that there are so many literary festivals taking place world over which not only showcases literary talent but it also serves as a catalyst for nurturing a vibrant literary community. The specialty of the literature festivals is that we get a chance to meet prominent writers from across the World.

During the session, a panel discussion was held on the topic 'What is the impact on Literature Festival in the era of Social Media'?. The speakers of the session vibrantly put forth their views on the topic and the benefits of social media in the expansion of Literary works and how it helps a reader to connect with the authors/writers. They delved into the elements that make certain stories endure across generations, emphasizing themes, emotions and cultural nuances that resonate universally. Island speakers shared their stories on the history of A&N Islands and unity amidst diversity making these Islands a 'Mini India'.

The second session titled 'Poetry, the Mirror of Soul - Poets' Meet', chaired by renowned poet Sheen Kaif Nizam, was a captivating confluence of poetic voices. Dr. Subhashree Lenka (Hindi), Rashmi Chowdhury (Bodo), Kalyani Haldar (Bengali), Ayush Dubey (Hindi), Dr. Manju Nair (Hindi), and Bhoominatham (Tamil) presented their poetry, offering a glimpse into their inner thoughts, emotions and reflections on society.

The session served as an inspiring platform for poetry lovers, allowing attendees to experience the profound impact of poetic expression. The exchange of ideas between established poets and aspiring writers fostered a deeper appreciation of poetry as a medium of self-expression. Budding poets from the Islands, in particular, gained immense knowledge about poetic techniques, themes and the power of words. The Literature festival continues to serve as a transformative platform for literary exchange, fostering a deeper appreciation for literature and poetry among attendees.
