

Meeting to sensitize contesting candidates on various instructions of ECI for enforcing MCC with regard to Election Expenditure Monitoring held

Port Blair, Mar. 31

A meeting was held in the Conference Hall of District Office, South Andaman under the Chairmanship of Returning Officer, A&N Islands Parliamentary Constituency in the presence of General Observer, Police Officer and the Expenditure Observer to explain various legal provisions and mechanisms in place to sensitize the contesting candidates for the lone Parliamentary seat of A&N Islands/their agents on various instructions of ECI issued for enforcing Model Code of Conduct with regard to Election Expenditure Monitoring (EEM). The meeting was also attended by the District Election Officers of North and Middle Andaman and Nicobar District through virtual mode. The candidates and their agents present were briefed on the MCC by the Nodal Officer (MCC) through a Power Point Presentation. They were made aware of the eight provisions of MCC like limiting to the criticism of political parties, their policies and programmes, past record and work, activities such as abusing caste and communal feelings to secure votes, criticizing candidates on the basis of unverified reports, bribing or intimidation of voters, and organizing demonstrations or picketing outside houses of persons to protest against their opinions, are prohibited. Further, the provision of suspension or withdrawal of the recognition of party, in the event of violation of Model Code of Conduct was also explained. The various Legal Provisions under the RP Act, 1951, and

Conduct of Election Rules, 1961, which mandates upkeep of proper day to day account of election expenses in the prescribed proforma and submission of the account of the same for inspection as well as filing of account within 30 days of declaration of election results and various sections of IPC were also explained in detail to the party functionaries. It was also appraised to them

GREETINGS

On the foundation day of Odisha on 01st April 2024, I convey my warm greetings to the people of Odisha.

Odisha became an independent province on this day in 1936. This day, also known as 'Utkal Dibasa', is commemorated to celebrate its rich heritage and significant contribution to India's diverse cultural landscape.

Let's embrace this day by honouring Odisha's legacy and achievements, reflecting on its journey from the ancient kingdom of Kalinga to a modern State with a unique identity.

On this occasion, I wish happiness and prosperity to the people of Odisha residing in these Islands.

Jai Hind!

Model Code of Conduct: ECI issues instructions to regulate road shows to avoid any inconvenience to general public/commuters

Port Blair, Mar. 31

With the announcement of General Elections-2024 by the Election Commission of India on 16/03/2024, the Model Code of Conduct has come into force with immediate effect.

In this regard, the Election Commission of India has issued the following instructions to regulate road shows to avoid any inconvenience to the general public/commuters during road shows which is detailed as under :-

◆ Prior permission for road shows shall be taken from the Competent Authority.

◆ In order to avoid inconvenience to general public, as far as possible, road shows, subject to court orders and local laws, should be permitted only on holidays and during no-peak hours on routes other than that having big hospitals, trauma centers, blood banks and heavily crowded markets.

◆ Number of vehicles and persons joining for road show shall be intimated in advance.

◆ The road show shall not cover more than half the road width to ensure safety of the general public.

◆ The convoy of vehicles being used in road show shall be broken after every 10 vehicles and a gap of 100 meters would be maintained.

◆ Safety of public and persons in the road show shall be ensured. Bursting of fire crackers and cVIGIL Mobile App- enabling citizens to report violations of Model Code of Conduct during elections

Port Blair, Mar. 31 cVIGIL is a mobile application developed by the Election Commission of India (ECI) to enable citizens to report violations of the Model Code of Conduct (MCC) during elections. The app is available for download on Android and iOS devices. To report a violation, users simply need to open the app, select the type of violation, and provide details of the incident, including location, time, and photographs or videos. The app also allows users to track the progress of their complaints.

The cVIGIL app has been praised for its simplicity, ease of use, authenticity, and user secrecy. It has also been credited with helping to increase the number of MCC violations reported during elections and action thereon.

Here are some of the features of the cVIGIL app:

- Allows users to report violations of the Model Code of Conduct (MCC).
- Provides a platform for citizens to participate in the electoral process.
- Uses GPS to track the location of the violation.
- Allows users to capture the live incidents only.
- Tracks the progress of the complaint.
- Feature to report the case of MCC violation anonymously.

If you see a violation of the MCC, you can use the cVIGIL app to report it. The app is a valuable tool for ensuring that elections are conducted fairly and transparently.

Here are some of the steps on how to use the cVIGIL app:

- Download the app from the Google Play Store or the Apple App Store.
- Open the app and create an account.
- Select the type of violation you want to report.
- Provide details of the incident, including location, time, and photographs or videos.
- Submit your complaint.
- The ECI will investigate your complaint and take appropriate action. You can track the progress of your complaint in the app, a press release received here said.

A&N Police issues advisory on Telegram Hijacking

Port Blair, Mar. 31 Instant Messaging (IM) Apps have become popular medium of communication among individuals. Fraudsters have targeted the app users and have managed to devise ways and means to take over or hijack their IM accounts to commit cyber offences by impersonating them. Users need to be aware and alert about these frauds with necessary safety measures against the same.

In this regard, Andaman and Nicobar Police has issued the following advisory to safeguard the citizens against Telegram Hijacking:

- Make your phone number private
- Never share verification codes with anyone, even if you know them.
- Beware of unusual requests received over Telegram or other messaging apps.

- Turn off notification preview for SMS. Anyone who can see the verification code on your phone can easily hijack your account.
- Enable "Two-Step Verification" for your Telegram account.
- Log out of Telegram web/desktop when you finish using it.
- If your Telegram account has been hijacked inform your family and friends that your account has been hacked, and they should not respond to any Telegram messages that appear to be from you.
- Warn others not to share their verification codes or any other confidential information.
- Report to Telegram regarding your stolen account " <https://telegram.org/support> "

For assistance, information or enquiries, contact: Cyber Crime Police Station, A&N Islands, over National Helpline No. 1930 and A&N Police Helpline No. 9531856083 or visit.cybercrime.gov.in, a press release from SP (CID) said.

that the candidates shall have to open a separate bank account for election expenditure. The details of various registers to be maintained by the candidates were also explained to them. The party functionaries were also briefed about the procedure to seek permission for holding public rallies/meetings etc. Further, it was informed that Section 127A of RP Act, 1951 mandates submission of declaration by the publisher for printing of Election pamphlet/poster etc. disclosing the identity of the publisher. It was informed that the scrutiny/inspection of account in connection with the Election Expenditure will be carried out as per the schedule provided to the contesting candidates and in case of any discrepancies, notices will be issued to the respective candidates.

The RO, ANIPC/DEO, SA informed the party functionaries that the Election Commission of India has issued a detailed set of instructions which are to be strictly adhered by all political parties and candidates. The RO informed that election permission module is available both offline and online mode through 'Suvidha' Portal by which party's representatives, candidates and election agents can apply for various permissions for election purpose. The RO, ANIPC cautioned that political parties will not be allowed to carry out any election related events without taking prior permissions.

While concluding, the General Observer and the Returning Officer, ANIPC requested the candidates present in the meeting to have a hands on training of the EVM. They were also asked to contact Election Expenditure Monitoring team, in case of difficulty / query relating to filling up of Election Expenditure Register, a press release from RO, ANIPC said.

AFFIDAVIT

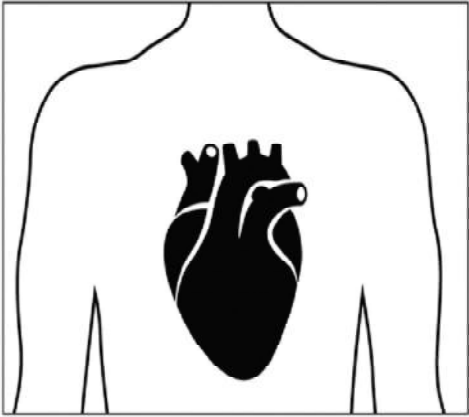

I, RUPA HALDAR, D/o DIJENDRA NATH HALDAR, R/o SITANAGAR village under Diglipur Tehsil in North Andaman, do hereby solemnly and sincerely affirm and declare the following:
That as per my OBC Certificate bearing No. ANIO1063622008000338 dated 11/03/2008 my father's actual and correct name is recorded as DIJENDRA NATH HALDAR. But by bonafied mistake my father's name has been wrongly recorded in all educational and other documents from Class 10 onwards as DIGENDRA NATH HALDER instead of DIJENDRA NATH HALDAR.
That the DIGENDRA NATH HALDER and DIJENDRA NATH HALDAR is the same and one identical and genuine person.
The above declaration is true and correct to the best of my knowledge and belief.
