Sub: Legal Notice.
My Client: - Smt. Theivani, W/o Shri. Muthu Saravanan, R/o Nayagaon, under Sri Vijaya Puram Tehsil, South Andaman District.
Sir(s)/ Madam(s),
Under the instructions of my client named above I would like to address you as follows:-

- That on 12.12.2019 an agreement was entered between my client and you all whereby you agreed to sell land measuring 1.028 Hectares out of land bearing Survey No.22 total area measuring 1.8500 Hectares and land measuring 0.033 Hectares out of land bearing Survey No.23 measuring total area 0.0600 Hectares situated at Caddlegunj Village, Ferrargunj Tehsil, South Andaman for a total sale consideration amount of Rs.69,16,000/- (Rupees Sixty nine lakhs sixteen thousand only). Out of the said total sale consideration amount, my client has paid an advance sale consideration amount of Rs.10,80,000/- (Rupees Ten lakhs eighty thousand only).
- That since then my client has been approaching you for executing sale deed in favour of my client but on one ground or another you kept on delaying the execution. Initially, you took the grounds of COVID-19 and when things got normal in March, 2022 you started telling my client that there is a dispute between the co-owners and unless the said dispute is resolved you cannot execute the sale deed. When my client asked you about the details of the dispute you told my client that matter is pending before the Deputy Commissioner and once the matter is decided you will execute the Sale Deed. Believing your words my client waited for the decision of the Deputy Commissioner. In June, 2024 you informed my client that the Deputy Commissioner has rejected the case.
- That my client again asked you to finalize the deal as now the application has been rejected to which you told that dispute between the co-owners is subsisting and therefore, my client need to wait for some more time.
- That in this way you have been delaying your performance by not executing Sale Deed in favour of my client and ultimately my client came to know from Gopal Singh in February, 2025 one of the co-owners of the land in question that a civil suit has been filed before the Civil Court and you have obtained an interim order whereby all the parties of the suit have been restrained from alienating the property.
- That your conduct of entering into the agreement with my client, receiving sale consideration and thereafter, filing a suit and obtaining interim order on yourself restricting parties to the suit from alienating the suit property amounts to cheating.
- That my client was always ready and willing to get the sale deed executed but you all were the one who initially made baseless excuses and thereafter filed the suit so that taking advantage of the pendency of the suit you can refuse to execute the sale deed in favour of my client.
- That it is a fact that when my client approached you recently in the first week of March, 2025 and asked you to get the order modified and execute sale deed in favour of my client, you refused to do the same.
- That my client states that my client is ready with the money for getting the Sale Deed executed and you are therefore requested to come forward for execution of the Sale Deed.

It is therefore, called upon you under instructions of my client to come forward for execution of the Sale Deed after getting the order passed by the Civil Court modified, within a period of 15 days from the date of receipt of this notice failing which my client would be constrained to approach the Court of Law and in such circumstances my client would not only claim specific performance of contract, but he shall also claim damages, compensation and cost of litigation."

Thanking you,
