adventure tourism offerings.

The leaders of FORTO and AATO, R. Ratnam and M Vinod, were at the forefront of this transformation. The introduction of e-visas will be a game-changer, they asserted. Previously, yachts and cruise ships could only pass by the islands. Now, they can dock and bring direct and indirect revenue to our shores.

Despite the excitement, challenges are there. The high import tax on yachts, hovering around 50 percent, was a concern among travel agents. At the recent India International Travel Mart in Bengaluru, the AATO delegation had championed the cause for lower taxes to truly unlock the potential of yacht tourism. 1 Foreign Poacher & 1 Engine Dinghy apprehended by N&M Andaman District Police

Diglipur, Aug.2
Information about the sighting of foreign poachers in the coastal area of the N&MA District was received on Aug.1, 2024. Upon receipt of the information, an anti-poaching team headed by ASI Muchray Munda, along with HC Ashok Samaddar, PCs Manikandan, Sushil Sarkar, Vijay Kumar, Gaurav Hawladar, and Shoaib Ali of PS Kalighat, was immediately constituted. The team quickly gathered information from the local fisherman and prepared a plan, and carried out anti-poaching operation in the suspected areas. The anti-poaching team actively searched for foreign poachers in the coastal and creek area of North Reef, where it was suspected that poachers were hiding. The team further commenced combing operations in the entire coastal region. During the combing operation, the team discovered a foreign poacher hidden in the Loha Tikry creek along with an engine dinghy. The team surprised the poacher and signaled for him to surrender. However, the poacher ignored the police orders and attempted to flee into the jungle. The team swiftly chased after him and successfully apprehended him. The apprehended poacher was brought to PS Kalighat. The anti-poaching team continues its search operation for more poachers. This successful operation demonstrates the dedication and effectiveness of the anti-poaching team in protecting wildlife and combating illegal poaching activities. The exemplary bravery shown by the anti-poaching team has been lauded, and they will be suitably rewarded.
