

ANCA to host 2nd All-India Open FIDE Rated Chess Tourney in Isles from Aug. 14 to 18

Port Blair, Aug. 11
The Andaman Chess Association (ANCA) is gearing up to host the highly anticipated 'AICF Chess for everyone' 2nd All-India Open FIDE Rated Chess Tournament 2024 from Aug. 14 to 18 at Hotel TSG Grand, Dollygunj. Around 140 players from across India, representing States such as Uttar Pradesh, Delhi, Gujarat, Maharashtra, Chhattisgarh, Kerala, Tamil Nadu, West Bengal, Jharkhand, and Andaman & Nicobar Islands, will compete in this prestigious tournament. This diverse and competitive field offers a golden opportunity for unrated players to establish their international FIDE ratings, while rated players have the perfect platform to improve their existing FIDE ratings. The tournament offers a substantial cash prize of Rs.1,15,000/- along with 40 trophies to be awarded across various categories. This makes it one of the most rewarding chess events in the region. The tournament will be conducted in a classical format with a time control of 90 minutes plus a 30-second increment per move, spanning nine rounds over five days. The opening ceremony will kick off the event on Aug. 14 at 9 am, marking the start of a week filled with intense competition and strategic brilliance. This FIDE-rated tournament being organized by ANCA provides local players an opportunity to earn or improve their international ratings and gain exposure to higher levels of competition and strengthen the chess culture in the region, a press release from ANCA said.

A&N Police conduct comprehensive awareness program at Govt. SSS Garacharma

Port Blair, Aug. 11
In a concerted effort to educate and empower the youth, various units of the Andaman & Nicobar Police, including PS Pahargaon, PS Anti-Narcotics, the Police Entertainment Team, the Traffic Unit and the Cyber Cell, in collaboration with PRAYAS, JAC, organized a significant awareness program at Govt. Senior Secondary School, Garacharma. The program, which successfully reached 585 students, aimed to address critical issues that impact the younger generation. The key topics covered included suicide prevention, the Protection of Children from Sexual Offences (POCSO) Act, Drug Abuse and Traffic Safety. Andaman & Nicobar Police keeping in line with the motto of 'Catch Them Young' have identified the urgent social need to create awareness among the children to ensure healthy development of the next generation of our country. With this aim in mind, the program was organised in collaboration with various units of Andaman & Nicobar Police and PRAYAS Foundation, an NGO working for child welfare. A skit was also presented as part of the program, making the session both informative and engaging. The initiative reflects the ongoing commitment of the Andaman & Nicobar Police to foster a safe and informed community. The awareness program received positive feedback from both students and faculty, highlighting the importance of such initiatives in creating a safer and more aware society. A&N Police will continue with such initiatives in future also. Any school or stakeholder wanting to coordinate for a similar session may write to SP(D) South Andaman Office for the same. The general public have been requested to pass on credible information regarding any anti-social activities noticed in their locality to phone no. 100, 112, 03192-250525, 03192-236641. Identity of the informer will be kept secret, a press release from SP (SA) said.

Food Safety Deptt. conducts special drive to detect presence of harmful chemical preservatives in fishes sold in markets

Port Blair, Aug. 11
A special drive was conducted by the Food Safety Department during the second week of August, 2024 to detect the presence of harmful chemical preservatives in fishes sold in the markets of South Andaman District. In some part of the country, it is reported that chemical preservative like formalin and ammonia are being used as preservatives in fishes for increasing its shelf life. The special drive was conducted with the help of formalin and ammonia testing field kits developed by Central Fisheries Research Institute, Kochi. At Mohanpura Market, 15 varieties of fishes were tested and all the fishes were found free from chemical preservatives. 18 varieties of fishes were tested at Junglighat Fish Market and all the test reports were found negative. 9 types of fishes were tested at Haddo and 17 varieties of fishes were tested at Bathubasti Fish Market and all the fishes were found free from chemical preservatives. Similarly, 21 fish samples were tested from various fish hawkers at Nayagaon, D i g n a b a d , Garacharma and Jodakilan area and all fishes were found free from formalin and ammonia. The Commissioner Food Safety/ Deputy Commissioner, South Andaman District has directed all fish vendors to refrain from the use of harmful chemicals for fish preservations. The Commissioner Food Safety further informed that similar drives shall also be organized in coming days jointly with Fisheries Department, A & N Administration and fish vendors, if any one is found using chemical preservatives in fishes, shall attract stringent punishment under the provisions of Food Safety & Standards Act, Rules & Regulations made there under, a press release from Designated Officer (FS) said.

ERSS-112 offers Islanders to access emergency services during crisis

Port Blair, Aug. 11
The Government of India initiative to integrate emergency helplines into a single helpline has resulted in the rolling out of 112 number. Emergency Response Support System (ERSS)-112, launched in 2019 in A&N Islands, offers residents the opportunity to access emergency services through the 112 helpline during any crisis. ERSS is a unified, Andaman-wide response system, accessible through the single number 112, providing immediate assistance from agencies such as Police (100), Fire (101), Health (102) and Disaster Management. Key features of ERSS-112 include:
> 24/7 Access: Residents can dial 112, press the power button thrice on any smartphone, or long-press the "5" or "9" key on a regular phone to initiate a panic call to the dedicated DIAL 112 Control Room.
> D i g i t a l Communication: SOS alerts can be sent via email or through the 112 India mobile app, available for free on Google Play Store and Apple Store.
> Dedicated Control Room: The DIAL 112 is working with a dedicated Control Room staffed with trained call-takers and dispatchers who handle emergency requests efficiently. This facility is linked to Emergency Response Vehicles and various Departmental Control Rooms, ensuring timely assistance to victims. Recent developments in the ERSS-112 system:

> The ERSS in Port Blair is undergoing a transition to 100% Police personnel deployment. Recent training for five female Police Officers has enhanced their capabilities in handling emergency calls and developing soft skills. Currently, Police personnel constitute one-third of the total staffing, with ongoing efforts to increase this number further.
> A new SOP is in the consultation stage, aimed at improving transparency and accountability in handling emergency calls. This document will establish clear guidelines and procedures to ensure optimal service delivery.
> ERSS-112 has been further integrated with other important helplines like Cyber (1930), Narcotics etc. to achieve goal of single helpline number. Integration with CHILD LINE 1098 is also under process.
> A system is also under process to equip ERSS-112 with facilities capable of transferring calls to related helplines like Cyber, Women etc. through web based dispatcher system. On average, ERSS receives approximately 150 calls daily related to various emergencies, with around 20% requiring immediate response. Members of the public have been encouraged to register voluntarily on 112 India mobile app and utilize ERSS-112 in any emergency situation, a press release from SP (SA) said.
