Portable Biogas Plant Demonstration wins praise from Chief Secretary

By harnessing biogas, Islands can lower their carbon footprint

Car Nicobar, Aug. 22

The Chief Secretary, A&N Administration, Dr. Chandra Bhushan Kumar, IAS accompanied by Smt. Pallavi Sarkar, IAS, Secretary (AH&VS), Shri Amit Kale, IAS, Deputy Commissioner (Nicobars) and senior Officers of the A&N Administration, reviewed activities under SPICE PRAVAH Month during his recent visit to Car Nicobar. These included the planting of spice plant saplings at an agricultural farm and the distribution of chicks and other farm inputs under Target 2.0 at the community hall.

The Zonal Office of the Department of AH&VS presented a live demonstration of a portable biogas plant which was witnessed by the Chief Secretary at Tapoiming village. He had a cup of coffee brewed using the portable biogas plant. This simple yet effective setup showcased the potential of biogas as a clean, renewable, and locally viable energy source, capable of reducing greenhouse gas emissions and the Chief Secretary managing organic waste efficiently. Introduced portable biogas digesters to the community on a pilot basis, paving the way for wider adoption across the Islands. He emphasized that such technology could transform energy access for remote Island communities like Car Nicobar, where conventional energy sources are limited.

The initiative aligns with the A&N Administration's commitment to promoting sustainable energy solutions and reducing dependency on non-renewable fuels. By harnessing biogas, Island communities can lower their carbon footprint, utilize organic waste effectively, and move toward a self-reliant, eco-friendly future. The demonstration reflects the AH&VS Department's dedication to integrating innovative technologies into rural development, fostering environmental sustainability, and enhancing community welfare across the A&N Islands, a press release from Department of AH&VS said.

Tourism Deptt. hosts orientation-cum-interaction prog. for registered Home Stay Owners

Commissioner (Tourism) urges Home Stay Owners to weave culture, cuisines & local connect into Island hospitality

Sri Vijaya Puram, Aug. 22

To further promote and develop Home Stays in the A&N Islands, the Tourism Department, A&N Administration organized an orientation-cum-interaction programme for registered Home Stay owners in the conference hall of the Directorate of Disaster Management today. The Commissioner-cum-Secretary (Tourism), Ms. Chanchal Yadav, IAS, graced the programme as the chief guest. The Secretary (IP&T), Ms. Jyoti Kumari, IAS, the Director (IP&T), Shri Azharuddin Zahiruddin Quazi, IAS, along with Home Stay owners, were present on the occasion.

Addressing the gathering, the Commissioner-cum-Secretary (Tourism), Ms. Chanchal Yadav, IAS, expressed her happiness over the overwhelming response from Home Stay owners for the interaction programme, which was devised to discuss ways to further improve the quality of stay for visiting tourists in the A&N Islands. She stated that tourists booking Home Stays are looking for more than just accommodation-they seek cultural experiences, local cuisine, and meaningful interaction with local people. "We need to focus on the unique experiences we are offering to our tourists related to this place, so that it prompts them to visit again and again," she remarked.

She added that it is encouraging to note that there are more than 100 registered Home Stays in the A&N Islands. She urged Home Stay owners to explore how Home Stays on the mainland are flourishing and suggested that, if required, exchange visits for Home Stay owners from the Islands could be arranged to provide first-hand exposure to the functioning of mainland Home Stays.

In her address, the Secretary (IP&T), Ms. Jyoti Kumari, IAS, said this interaction programme is the first initiative of the Tourism Department to bring all Home Stay owners onto a single platform to hear their concerns and gather suggestions on making tourists' stay in the Islands more pleasant and memorable. She informed that the Department of Tourism is developing a new, attractive website where all Home Stays will be showcased on a dedicated page. She urged the owners to contribute good photographs/videos of their Home Stays along with contact details. This, she said, will help Home Stay owners increase their reach among tourists visiting the Tourism Department's website.

She further stated that refresher sessions have also been planned for the benefit of Home Stay owners to make them aware of how to interact with tourists, understand their expectations, and improve offerings such as cuisine. "Home Stays are not just places to stay; they also serve as guides for tourists to understand the local culture and community," she concluded.

Welcoming the chief guest and others, the Director (IP&T),

Shri Azharuddin Zahiruddin Quazi, IAS, said, the main objective of conducting this programme is to interact with Home Stay owners on ways to enhance the visitor experience so that tourists carry back fond memories of the area in particular and the A&N Islands in general. He added that through this programme, the Directorate of Tourism has provided a platform for Home Stay owners to share their problems and suggestions, enabling the preparation of actionable steps for the further growth of tourism in the Islands.

During the interaction session, some Home Stay owners shared valuable suggestions for improvement and measures to increase the duration of tourists' stay in Sri Vijaya Puram.

Later, during the refresher session, Shri Seemanta Kumar Deka, HoD, BBA (Tourism), JNRM; Shri N. Vel Murugan, Assistant Director, India Tourism, Sri Vijaya Puram; and Shri Uday Narayan, Faculty, DBRAIT, addressed the gathering.

South Andaman District Police secure successful conviction of 20 years in rape of 4 years old child

Sri Vijaya Puram, Aug. 22
The meticulous and professional investigation carried out by the South Andaman District Police has led to the successful conviction in a POCSO case registered against Kishov Ojha at Police Station Ograbraj in the year 2022. The investigation was diligently carried out by SI Arti Roy, under the close supervision of SI Devanand Pathak, the then SHO, PS Ograbraj. The tireless efforts, coupled with the professional commitment of the investigating officers, laid a strong foundation for the prosecution. The case was further strengthened by the compelling arguments presented by Ms. Tasneem, Special Prosecutor (POCSO), Sri Vijaya Puram, before the Hon'ble Special Judge (POCSO). This synergy between dedicated police work and effective prosecution ensured that justice was served leading to the conviction of the accused. On 21st August, 2025, the Hon'ble Special Judge (POCSO), Sri Vijaya Puram passed the conviction judgement sentencing the accused Kishov Ojha to rigorous imprisonment for twenty years and imposing a fine of Rs 10,000/-. In addition, the Hon'ble Special Judge also directed that a sum of Rs 1,00,000/- be paid to the victim as compensation by the State Government. This verdict stands as a powerful reaffirmation of the scientific, professional, and impartial approach of our judicial system, as well as the unwavering dedication of legal professionals, investigators, and all those who tirelessly pursue justice. The successful resolution of this case underscores the effectiveness of collaborative efforts between legal professionals and law enforcement agencies in combating crimes against children. South Andaman District Police shall remain steadfast in our mission to advocate for justice and uphold the rule of law, a press release from SSP (SA) said.
