Hon'ble Lieutenant Governor chairs UT level DGSP/IGSP Conference on outcomes of 60th All India DGSP/IGSP Conference

Hon'ble Lt. Governor emphasizes importance of coordinated Civil Administration and Police efforts to ensure safety, security, and welfare of citizens

Sri Vijaya Puram, Dec. 8
 In alignment of the vision of the Hon'ble Prime Minister of India, a Union Territory Level DGSP/IGSP Conference was convened under the chairmanship of Admiral D. K. Joshi, PVSM, AVSM, YSM, NM, VSM (Retd.), the Hon'ble Lieutenant Governor of the Andaman & Nicobar Islands, and Vice-Chairman of the Islands Development Agency today to disseminate and deliberate upon the key outcomes of the All India DGSP/IGSP Conference - 2025. Dr. Chandra Bhushan Kumar, IAS, Chief Secretary, A&N Administration, Sri Hargobinder Singh

Dhaliwal, IPS, Director General of Police, ANI, Shri Sanjay Kumar Sinha, IFS, PCCF, Commissioner-cum-Secretaries, senior Officers of A&N Administration and all Officers of Andaman & Nicobar Police participated in the deliberations.

The inaugural session was held in the Conference Hall of Lok Niwas, where an overview of the 60th All India Conference of DGSP/IGSP -

2025 along with a performance report on achievements of A&N Police was presented by the Police Department. Discussions were held to develop a framework for implementation of actionable points for the A & N Police and the A & N Administration and to strengthen coordination between Police & Administration. The Hon'ble Lieutenant Governor appreciated Police Station Pahargaon for securing the 2nd position among more than 18000 Police Stations across the country. Hon'ble Lieutenant Governor emphasized the importance of coordinated efforts among Civil Administration and Police forces to ensure safety, security, and welfare of the citizens of the Islands. He urged all officers to implement the actionable points emerging from the DGSP/IGSP Conference-2025 with commitment and urgency.

The technical sessions were held at the Conference Hall of Police Headquarters to brain storm on key policing challenges in various fields like Disaster Management, Coastal Security, use of technology like NATGRID & ICJS and strategies to tackle Cyber Fraud & Narcotics. The Conference concluded with a reaffirmation of the Andaman & Nicobar Police's resolve to uphold the highest standards of policing and governance in the Union Territory, in line with the vision of the Hon'ble Prime Minister of India, a press release from PHQ, A&N Police said.

Pay & Accounts Organization celebrates Civil Accounts Day Secretary (Finance) launches 'e-Sankalan' Mobile Application- a comprehensive digital repository of Rule Books, Manuals, Office Memoranda & Circulars

Sri Vijaya Puram, Dec. 8

DSS to strengthen Harbour connectivity Initiates chartering of three 50-passenger vessels for deployment in inland waterways of Diglipur, Long Island & Nancowry region

Sri Vijaya Puram, Dec. 8
 The Directorate of Shipping Services, A&N Administration, is further strengthening harbour-sector connectivity by initiating the chartering of three 50-passenger vessels for deployment in the inland waterways of Diglipur, Long Island and Nancowry region. This step reinforces DSS's commitment to provide smooth, reliable and better connectivity in time. This shall also reduce the additional burden on the available resources. As the principal public transport lifeline of the Islands, DSS continues to support daily mobility, livelihoods and access to essential services. With rising service demand and an ageing fleet, DSS is proactively augmenting capacity to ensure uninterrupted, dependable movement for residents. The chartered vessels will bolster routine services on key harbour routes, benefitting daily commuters and enhancing overall service stability. This forward-looking measure underscores the DSS's commitment already to keep essential connectivity strong and accessible at all times. To operationalise this initiative, tenders have been published on 03.12.2025 in A&N Administration's official e-procurement portal: eprocure.andamannicobar.gov.in, inviting participation from competent firms. DSS reiterates its commitment to maintaining efficient, safe and welfare-oriented maritime services for the Island community, a press release from DSS said.

immediate first-aid steps, the vital importance of reporting every bite incident without delay, and the scientific role of the Animal Birth Control (ABC) programme in humanely controlling the stray dog population.

Special emphasis was laid on sensitising senior students about their future role as responsible citizens in supporting sterilisation and anti-rabies vaccination drives, discouraging cruelty, and promoting community-level solutions instead of fear or violence against animals.

The session concluded with an extended interactive segment where students of all age groups actively participated. Even the youngest children asked innocent yet thoughtful questions, while senior students sought details on volunteering opportunities and careers in animal welfare. Every query was patiently addressed by the veterinary officers.

The Principal and teachers hailed the programme as highly impactful and timely.

The Department stated that today's programme at Swaraj Dweep marks another milestone in its Island-wide campaign to make the Andaman & Nicobar Islands completely safe from dog-bite incidents and eventually rabies-free through sustained awareness, mass ABC operations, and community partnership, a press release from Deptt. of AH&VS said.
