Special sailings to facilitate students and residents of southern group of Islands for Barren Island Cruise and New Year Voyage

Sri Vijaya Puram, Dec. 26
The Directorate of Shipping Services, under the directions of the Andaman & Nicobar Administration, has been operating round-voyage cruises from Sri Vijaya Puram to Barren Island since October 2025. The service was initiated to promote tourism and to offer passengers a unique opportunity to view Barren Island, the only active volcano in the Indian subcontinent. The passenger vessels MV Sindhu and MV Nalanda have jointly undertaken four round voyages to Barren Island on 24th October, 14th November, 28th November, and 12th December 2025, providing a once-in-a-lifetime experience to 1,557 travellers, including around 475 Government School students from Sri Vijaya Puram and students from North & Middle Andaman, who greatly benefited from the educational exposure and first-hand experience of marine and geological heritage. In addition to the forthcoming sailing of MV Nalanda on 26th December, 2025, as well as the already promulgated sailings on 9th and 23rd January 2026, the Directorate of Shipping Services has also announced the scheduling of MV Swaraj Dweep for a special voyage to Barren Island on 31st December, 2025, on the eve of the New Year. Further, to facilitate Government School students and residents of the Southern Group of Islands (Car Nicobar to Campbell Bay) to witness the only active volcano at Barren Island and to celebrate New Year's Eve on board MV Swaraj Dweep on 31st December, 2025, the Directorate has arranged a special sailing programme of MV Nalanda. The schedule of MV Nalanda is as detailed below:

Sl. No.	Name of the vessel	Date & Time of Sailing	From	To	Date & Time of Return voyage	From	To
1.	Nalanda	28.12.2025 1100 hrs	Sri Vijaya Puram	Campbell Bay	29.12.2026 2100 hrs	Campbell Bay	Sri Vijaya Puram via Nancowry & Car Nicobar
2.	Nalanda	03.01.2026 1600 hrs	Sri Vijaya Puram	Campbell Bay via Car Nicobar & Nancowry	05.01.2026 0900 hrs	Campbell Bay	Sri Vijaya Puram via Nancowry

Passenger tickets for the above sailing will be issued from 27.12.2025 (Saturday) onwards. Tickets can be booked through the DSS e-Ticketing Portal at <https://dss.andamannicobar.gov.in/eticketing>, which is available 24×7 on all days. For user convenience, a QR code linking directly to the portal has also been provided. Tickets can also be booked from the STARS Ticketing Counter on all working days from 9 AM to 4 PM.

remote Islands by the Art & Culture Department, A&N Administration. The venues where a series of enthralling cultural programmes has been planned include ITF Ground at VIP Road, Marina Esplanade, Wandoor, Wimberlygunj, Swaraj Dweep, Shaheed Dweep, and Hut Bay in South Andaman, extending further to Baratang, Rangat, Mayabunder, and Diglipur in North & Middle Andaman, and reaching Car Nicobar and Campbell Bay in the Nicobar group of Islands. Each venue will resonate with performances that celebrate the living heritage of the Islands while embracing the artistic traditions of other regions of the country.

For the first time, the Art & Culture Department has roped in cultural troupes from different States/ UTs of India who will be joining hands with local organizations and renowned institutions such as the South Zone Cultural Centre (SZCC) and the Eastern Zonal Cultural Centre (EZCC) to present a kaleidoscope of classical, folk, and tribal art forms. The SZCC ensemble will captivate audiences with Mayoornarithyam, Thira, Theyyam, Marakkalattam, Karagam, Oyiil Dummy Horse, Thappattam, Singarimelam, and Martial Arts, while the EZCC troupe will enthrall with Sambalpuri Mahamaya and Netaji-themed creative dances.

Adding to the splendour, the Directorate of Culture & Language, Chhattisgarh will showcase its rich folk and tribal traditions, Bhatkhande Sanskriti Vishwavidyalaya, Lucknow will bring the elegance of Kathak, Youth Service & Cultural Activities, Jamnagar, Gujarat will present the devotional Ras Leela, and artistes from Jammu & Kashmir will mesmerise with their folk dances Jagarna, Rouff, Phardi, and Badherbi. The Island Tourism Festival 2025 promises to be a magnificent celebration of unity in diversity, where the rhythms of the mainland India will harmonise with the melodies of these Islands, creating a cultural symphony that honours India's timeless heritage. Apart from the Cultural Programmes, popular events such as the Healthy Baby Show, Flower Show, Vegetable Show, Fruit Show, Pet Show and Rangoli competitions will be organized by concerned Departments.

To add colour to the festivities, different Government Departments will set up stalls to depict developmental activities and showcase the Islands' progress. Self-Help Groups (SHGs) will also present local handicrafts and homemade products. Like in the previous years, this year also a 'Hasya Kavi Sammelan' (comic poetry session) will be organised by the Department of Official Language, A&N Administration. As usual, delicious food courts will be set up offering various cuisines and eatables, besides fun games for children to add festivities during the ITF.

The general public have been invited to come and enjoy the 5- days festival and soak in the spirit of fun, food and cultural extravaganza. The event will be held till Dec. 31 from 5.30 pm to 10 pm, press releases from IP&T/ Art & Culture Departments said.

Departmental officials trained in sustainable farming innovations at ICAR-CPCRI, Kerala

Sri Vijaya Puram, Dec. 26

To promote eco-friendly and sustainable agricultural practices, the Department of Agriculture under the High Value Agriculture Development Agency (HVADA) deputed four officials to participate in a five-day hands on training programme on "Areca Leaf Sheath Powder Tricho-Block production" and "Kalpa Organic Gold - Coconut Leaf Vermicomposting". The training was conducted from 15th to 19th December 2025 at the ICAR-Central Plantation Crops Research Institute (CPCRI), Kasargode.

The intensive training blended theoretical insights with extensive practical exposure, enabling participants to gain a thorough understanding of innovative organic technologies. Officials were trained in the complete process of Tricho-Block preparation, covering media formulation, Trichoderma culture inoculation, incubation and final block production. Step-by-step demonstrations followed by hands-on practice ensured clarity and confidence in replicating the technology at the field level.

In addition, participants underwent practical training in Coconut leaf vermicomposting, learning efficient methods to convert coconut leaves and other biomass wastes, including arecanut residues into high-quality organic manure. The sessions highlighted sustainable waste management practices and reinforced the role of organic inputs in improving soil health and farm productivity.

The programme proved highly impactful, equipping officials with practical skills to disseminate cost-effective, organic, and environmentally friendly technologies among farming communities. This training empowered to transform agricultural waste into wealth while strengthening farming systems at the grassroots, a press release from Department of Agriculture said.

Progressive spice farmers trained at ICAR-IISR under 'SPICE PRAVAH' initiative

Sri Vijaya Puram, Dec. 26

As part of the 'SPICE PRAVAH' initiative, the Department of Agriculture, under the High Value Agriculture Development Agency (HVADA), deputed five farmers along with two officials to undergo specialized skill training on 'Multiplication of Spices Planting Materials' at the ICAR-Indian Institute of Spice Research (IISR), Kozhikode, Kerala from 15th to 18th December 2025.

During the training programme, the progressive spice farmers namely Shri. K.R. Radhakrishnan Nair, Rangat, Shri. Paramjit Singh, Campbell Bay, Shri. Joyful D, Katchal, Shri. Kalaigannam, & Shri. Gangaraju from South Andaman received hands-on training in advanced nursery techniques, including grafting and budding in Nutmeg, the serpentine method of Black pepper planting materials production and Bush pepper production technology. A Farmer Scientist Interactive session allowed farmers to raise field level challenges, with experts providing practical solutions on nutrient management, pest and disease control and methods for raising disease free planting materials.

The trainees also visited progressive farmers' fields, where they exchanged knowledge and observed innovative practices combining

Spice crops with Fruit crops, encouraging sustainable and diversified farming.

These five selected Spice farmers will now be licensed to raise planting materials of high-yielding Nutmeg and Black pepper varieties developed by ICAR-IISR, Kozhikode ensuring wider adoption of improved spice crops, strengthening the region's spice production, promoting sustainable agriculture and enhancing India's position in High Value Spice cultivation, a press release from Department of Agriculture said.
