the presence of Pradhan of Calicut Gram Panchayat and other PRI members. Representatives from various line Departments, including Revenue, Police, APWD and Electricity, attended the Camp Court, which drew a large gathering of residents. The public presented their grievances, which included issues related to infrastructure, utilities and developmental needs. Ms. Anuja Trivedi assured timely resolution of all concerns and instructed the respective Departments to submit action-taken reports within 15 days.

During the Camp Court, certificates such as No Objection Certificates for developmental works, Local Certificates and others were issued. Shri Thomas Varghese, Tehsildar, Sri Vijaya Puram, who accompanied the Assistant Commissioner (UT), resolved two mutation cases on the spot, ensuring immediate relief to the public.

Further, a Revenue Camp Court was conducted at Shoal Bay Gram Panchayat under the chairmanship of Shri Vasant Dabholkar, IAS (P), Assistant Commissioner (UT). Representatives from various line Departments actively participated in the Camp Court. The event received an overwhelming response from the public, with grievances related to revenue, health, electricity, water supply, education, agriculture, transport, MGNREGA, Panchayat civil works etc.

Several issues were addressed on the spot through directives to the concerned Departments, while the Assistant Commissioner (UT) assured to escalate unresolved matters to the relevant authorities for prompt redressal.

The week-long celebrations being conducted under the aegis of the Hon'ble Prime Minister's vision for 'Prashasan Gaon Ki Ore' (Administration Towards Villages), emphasized transparency, accountability and responsive governance.

The District Administration, South Andaman, reaffirms its commitment in addressing public grievances and ensuring that the benefits of governance reach every corner of the District, a press release from DC (SA) said.

Casper James conferred Atal Bhushan
Award in the category of Historical Tribal Social Networking

Sri Vijaya Puram, Dec. 20

In a proud moment for the Andaman and Nicobar Administration, Shri Casper James, Tehsildar, has been conferred with the prestigious Atal Bhushan Award in the category of Historical Tribal Social Networking. This coveted recognition was awarded by the renowned Atal Foundation for his outstanding contributions to fostering social harmony and empowering tribal communities through innovative and inclusive approaches.

Shri Casper James has been at the forefront of initiatives that have bridged historical gaps in tribal networking, creating a platform for inclusivity and progress. His efforts have not only strengthened the socio-economic fabric of the tribal communities but have also amplified their voices in governance and development.

The Atal Bhushan Award, instituted in honor of the visionary leader Shri Atal Bihari Vajpayee, recognizes individuals who make exemplary contributions to nation-building in various domains. Shri Casper James' achievement marks a significant milestone in the inclusive development of tribal communities.

The A & N Administration takes immense pride in this remarkable achievement and has congratulated Shri Casper James for this well-deserved honor. His recognition serves as an inspiration to all officers and stakeholders committed to creating a progressive and equitable society, a press release from DC (SA) said.
