

Hon'ble Minister of State for Education holds press conference 50,000 new Atal Tinkering Labs to be set up in schools across India to foster scientific temper among young minds: Minister

Staff Correspondent

Sri Vijaya Puram, Feb. 18

The Hon'ble Minister of State for Education, Dr. Sukanta Majumdar described the Union Budget 2025-26 presented by the Finance Minister, Smt. Nirmala Sitharaman under the able guidance of the Prime Minister, Shri Narendra Modi as 'very good' budget. He said, the budget focuses on ensuring farmer's prosperity, skilling of youth, and also bringing 70 percent of women under income generating activities, thereby taking the country on the path of 'Viksit Bharat'. With an objective to boost household consumption and aggregate demand, Finance Minister has announced that incomes up to Rs.12 lakh would draw no income tax in the new tax regime, he stated this, addressing media persons during a press conference held in the auditorium of TGCE here today.

The Minister further stated that, in the Education Sector, 50,000 more Atal Tinkering Labs will be set up in schools across India. The objective of this initiative is to foster curiosity, creativity, and imagination in young minds; and to also inculcate skills like computational thinking, adaptive learning, physical computing etc., said the Minister adding that A&N Islands will also be benefitting from this initiative. With more ATLs, the students will be able to learn new technology, acquaint themselves with AI technology, mobile repairing, drone, etc. Hands on training will also be provided to students and they will get greater exposure to technology, he said. Further, in the coming years, students' will be highly skilled in technology along with their academic pursuits.

Referring to the Fisheries

Sector, the Minister said, under the Annual Budgetary Support, the Govt. has kept Rs.2703 crores for the Fisheries sector all over the country and A&N Islands will also get its share for further development in Fisheries Sector. Efforts are also on to increase the Tuna cluster and potential for Tuna Fishing in the Exclusive Economic Zone (EEZ) of A&N Islands. For this, the Modi Govt. has kept enough budgetary allocation. He said, for the benefit of the farmers across the country and also in A&N Islands, the Kisan Credit Card (KCC) loan amount has been increased from Rs. 3 lakh to Rs. 5 lakh, which, he said, will benefit the farmers immensely.

Shri Naresh Chander Lal, Padma Shri Awardee and Ambassador of Swachh Bharat Mission, A&N Islands called on Admiral D K Joshi, PVSM, AVSM, YSM, NM, VSM (Retd.), Hon'ble Lt. Governor, A&N Islands and Vice Chairman, Islands Development Agency today at Raj Niwas and briefed the Hon'ble Lt. Governor about various initiatives of Swachh Bharat Mission implemented in A&N Islands.

Fishers and fish farmers of A&N Islands urged to refrain from using harmful chemicals for fishing Violators will be dealt strictly in accordance with applicable regulations

Sri Vijaya Puram, Feb. 18

Instances have come to the notice of the Department of Fisheries that some fishers, fish farmers, and members of the general public in the South Andaman District are resorting to the use of harmful chemicals for catching fish in the nearby nallahs and ponds. This practice, which involves using toxic chemicals to render fish unconscious and facilitate easier capture, not only leads to severe environmental pollution but also poses a significant risk to the food chain, as the toxins may enter it through contaminated fish.

Under the A&N Islands Marine Fishing

Rules, such practices are a serious offence. The Department of Fisheries, as per the terms and conditions of these rules, has advised all fishers and fish farmers to refrain from using harmful chemicals for fishing.

Any violators of these rules will be dealt with strictly, in accordance with the applicable regulations. The Fisheries Department has urged the public to engage in responsible and sustainable fishing practices to protect the environment and ensure the long-term health of the local marine ecosystem, a press release from Directorate of Fisheries said.

Hon'ble Minister of State for Education inaugurates tribal crafts shop - 'The Island Heritage Crafts' at RGT Road

Govt. committed to supporting tribal entrepreneurship & preserving indigenous culture: Minister

Staff Correspondent

Sri Vijaya Puram, Feb. 18

The Hon'ble Minister of State for Education, Dr. Sukanta Majumdar, inaugurated a tribal crafts shop named 'The Island Heritage Crafts' at RGT Road today by cutting the ribbon, marking a historic step towards empowering the tribal artisans of Andaman & Nicobar Islands. The event was attended by tribal leaders, artisans, women entrepreneurs, and key stakeholders dedicated to preserving and promoting Nicobari heritage.

In his address, Dr. Sukanta Majumdar expressed his happiness in inaugurating the Craft Centre and congratulated the SHGs for their efforts in making these products, especially the Virgin Coconut Oil. He also praised the efforts of the tribal community, highlighting the Government's commitment to supporting tribal entrepreneurship and preserving indigenous culture. Dr. Majumdar also witnessed the GI-tagged products on display, where he was presented with Nicobar Virgin Coconut Oil, a product recognized and featured in Prime Minister, Shri Narendra Modi's 'Mann Ki Baat' of the brand 'Tribe Nicobar'. He interacted with tribal artisans, women entrepreneurs, and members of Self-Help Groups (SHGs), acknowledging their efforts in preserving traditional crafts.

Thereafter, the Minister also visited the showroom of Reem Indane, the first tribal woman LPG distributor in the capital, and the first registered tribal film production company, both milestones achieved under the Modi Government's vision for tribal empowerment. A visit to the Tribal Development Council Maritime Training Institute followed, where Dr. Majumdar was briefed about the

MP urges CGM, BSNL to conduct review of BSNL's network coverage in Isles

Sri Vijaya Puram, Feb. 18

Shri Bishnu Pada Ray, Member of Parliament, Andaman & Nicobar Islands, has expressed serious concerns regarding the persistent network failures and poor connectivity issues faced by residents across North & Middle Andaman and other rural areas of the Islands, despite the installation of BSNL towers. During his last tour to North & Middle Andaman, the MP was approached by several residents who highlighted the severe challenges they face due to BSNL network issues. "With the implementation of Digital India, seamless network connectivity is no longer a luxury but a necessity", the MP stated.

In light of these issues, the MP has urged the Chief General Manager of A&N Telecom Circle, BSNL, to conduct an immediate review of BSNL's network coverage in all uncovered and poorly connected areas, a press release from MP received here said.

District Administration, SA takes swift action against fresh encroachments

Sri Vijaya Puram, Feb. 18

The District Administration, as part of its ongoing efforts to protect Government land, has successfully carried out eviction operations against fresh encroachments at various places in Ferrargunj Tehsil.

In Mithakhari village, encroachments in the form of fencing were removed from Government land, and an area of 500 square meter of revenue land was successfully restored to Government Khaata by the revenue field staff. In Ferrargunj Tehsil, further encroachments were dealt when an individual attempted to construct a house on Government land and tried to occupy Government land by erecting concrete pillars and barbed wire fencing. These pillars were removed by the revenue
