Echoes of harmony: Spectacular fusion of dance, music and art captivates the vibrant crowd at ITF Ground

Staff Correspondent

Sri Vijaya Puram, Jan. 4

The cultural programme at the ITF main pavilion captivated the audience with a mesmerizing display of music and rhythm, leaving attendees enchanted by the beauty of artistic expression. The Saturday crowd swelled at the main venue to have a glimpse of the variety of performances, each blending traditional and contemporary elements, creating a harmonious fusion of culture and creativity. From soulful melodies to electrifying rhythmic beats, the programme celebrated the universal language of music. The evening was infused with a festive spirit, as the vibrant energy of the performers resonated through the venue, engaging the audience in a shared celebratory mood.

Dancers swayed gracefully to the intricate rhythms, while musicians skillfully wove a tapestry of sound, filling the air with joyous harmony. Each performance highlighted the richness of cultural heritage. It was not just an evening of entertainment but a heartfelt celebration of unity, artistry and the enduring beauty of human creativity. The live band performance was the highlight of the evening, enchanting the audience with a carefully curated mix of soulful melodies and groovy upbeat numbers. The atmosphere came alive as the band effortlessly transitioned between genres, offering something for every music lover in attendance. The soulful numbers struck an emotional chord with smooth vocals and evocative instrumentation that seemed to carry the audience on a journey of nostalgia. The rich harmonies of the band complemented the poignant lyrics, creating moments of deep connection and serenity. The band's vibrant synergy with the vocalist, ensured that the energy remained high throughout the performance. As the night progressed, the band invited the audience to sing along, transforming the event into an interactive celebration of music and togetherness. It was an unforgettable

A&N Administration speeds up efforts under 'PM TB Mukh Bharat Abhiyan' People encouraged to contribute to this noble cause by registering as 'Nikshay Mitra'

Sri Vijaya Puram, Jan. 4

The District Health Society under the aegis of South Andaman District Administration conducted a camp at Kaitan Kalyana Mandapam, Junglighat and distributed nutritional kits to TB patients under the Pradhan Mantri TB Mukh Bharat Abhiyan. Shri Arjun Sharma, IAS, Deputy Commissioner (South Andaman), distributed nutritional kits to TB patients at Kaitan Kalyana Mandapam, Junglighat. The programme was aimed to motivate the community to adopt TB patients and raise awareness about TB prevention, early detection, and treatment. In his address, Shri Arjun Sharma emphasized the collective responsibility in the fight against TB. He highlighted the importance of early diagnosis, consistent treatment, and active community participation to eradicate the disease. Shri Sharma stressed that addressing the social stigma associated with TB is equally crucial, as fostering awareness and community engagement can significantly reduce the disease's prevalence and improve patient outcomes. Additionally, the DC (SA) shared that 41 Nikshay Mitras have already registered under the initiative and presently 133 TB patients have been adopted under South Andaman District. He encouraged the public to contribute to this noble cause by registering as a Nikshay Mitra through the Nikshay portal at <https://reports.nikshay.in/FormIO/DonorRegistration>. Dr. Chandra Bhushan Kumar, IAS, Chief Secretary and other senior officers of Andaman & Nicobar Administration have registered themselves as Nikshay Mitras and adopted TB patients under the Pradhan Mantri TB Mukh Bharat Abhiyan, a press release from Deputy Commissioner, South Andaman said.

direct bearing on improving livelihood opportunities of the nearby areas.

The Information Center was designed to educate visitors and locals about the rich biodiversity of the region. It contains informative displays on the local flora and fauna, interactive exhibits and models that provide insight into the forest ecosystem and conservation efforts. It also includes a section dedicated to the significance of the region's indigenous tribal communities especially Jarawas and their role in maintaining ecological balance.

Another addition of Bird-cum-Nature Trail at Jarawa Gate No. 3 offers visitors an immersive experience through nature walks, allowing them to observe birdlife and wildlife in their natural habitat. The trail is equipped with informative boards and observation points, indigenous huts, making it an ideal location for both nature lovers and educational groups.

These facilities are expected to benefit the local communities by providing educational opportunities, raising awareness about the importance of preserving nature and encouraging sustainable tourism and providing ample opportunities for self-employment to the local youth.

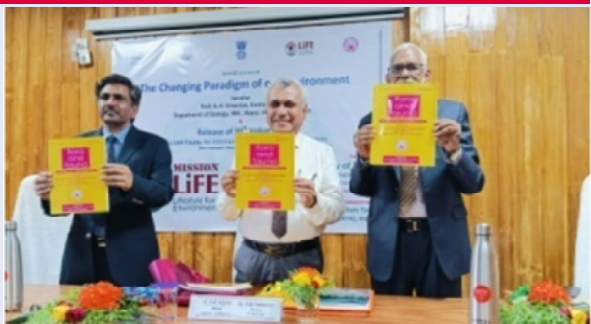

The initiation of these sites marks an important step towards raising awareness about the region's natural heritage while contributing to sustainable community development and ecological conservation in Middle Andaman, a press release from DFO, Middle Andaman said.
