Awareness prog. on plastic pollution organized at GSSS Manglutan

Sri Vijaya Puram, Jan. 6
The Department of Science and Technology (DST) organized an awareness program at Government Senior Secondary School, Manglutan. The program aimed to address the critical issue of plastic pollution and included discussions on plastic waste management, the adverse effects of single-use plastics, and the circular economy, and the Sustainable Development Goals (SDGs).
Ms R. Svathi Lakshmi, Law Officer, DST, delivered an in-depth presentation on the plastic pollution. She explained the sources, causes, and preventive measures for plastic pollution, highlighting the impact of single-use plastics on the environment. She also discussed legal frameworks related to waste management, the global plastic treaty, microplastics, and various treatment methods. Additionally, she introduced the concepts of the circular economy and sustainable development goals, emphasizing their significance in addressing environmental challenges. She underscored the

Celebrating the Spirit of Tribes - Island Tourism Festival showcases Culture, Nature and Unity at Nancowry Festival displayed an array of colorful performances by local groups & school children Stalls of various Departments displayed initiatives of Govt., serving as a centre for knowledge and awareness

Nancowry, Jan. 6
The picturesque Nancowry subdivision came alive as it hosted a vibrant Island Tourism Festival (ITF), 2024 yesterday at Indira Park, Kamorta, celebrating the rich cultural heritage, natural beauty and diverse traditions of the region. The event was graced by Shri Pravesh Ranjan Jha, Director (Shipping), A & N Administration, as the chief guest, and Shri Aditya Sangotra, Assistant Commissioner, Nancowry, as the guest of honor. Commanding Officers of INS Kardip and Indian Coast Guard, along with Chief Tribal

Captain, Nancowry, Ms. Ayesha Majeed, were also present on the occasion. A large gathering of enthusiastic crowd consisting of young and old, men and women from distant villages alike gathered to soak in the festivity of evening at the ground. The lights and music created a heavenly atmosphere, making it a moment to remain embedded for a long time in the minds of the people. The festival displayed an array of colorful performances by local groups and school children alluring the audiences with their diverse performances and sparkling costumes displaying various initiatives of the Government, serving as a centre for knowledge and awareness. The events displayed Fire dance, Stick Fight and bamboo dance - a local art form of tribal communities of Nancowry group of Islands. The night shone brighter with
