Another addition to the series of Heritage Walks

Corbyn's Cove Heritage Walk: A journey through Time and Culture

Sri Vijaya Puram, Jan. 12

In its continued effort to spotlight the rich history of the Andaman and Nicobar Islands, the A&N Administration organized another edition of its popular Heritage Walks series. On Sunday, January 12, 2025, a special Corbyn's Cove Heritage Walk saw an enthusiastic group of senior officers and civilians exploring the historical landmarks of the region, led by Dr. Chandra Bhushan Kumar, IAS, Chief Secretary of A&N Administration.

The heritage walks, as emphasized by the Chief Secretary, aim to blend physical wellness with a deeper appreciation of the Islands' historical and cultural significance. "These walks are not only a way to encourage a healthy lifestyle but also a platform to connect with our roots and understand the stories that shaped our past," he remarked.

The walk commenced from Govt. Girls School Junction and followed a scenic route encompassing Flag Point,

Goodwill Estate, Hornbill Resort, ANIIMS Campus, and the Shrine of Allama Fazl-e-Haq Khairabadi

before culminating at the serene Corbyn's Cove. Adding depth to the experience, renowned historian Dr. Pronob Kumar Sircar accompanied the

Shaheed Dweep, Jan. 12

The Chief Secretary, A&N Administration, Dr. Chandra Bhushan Kumar, IAS, on visit to Shaheed Dweep, inaugurated improvement of Road from Neil Kendra Bazaar to Laxmanpur, Sunset Point and improvement of road from Jetty to Sitapur today. The Secretary (Fisheries/IP&T/Art & Culture), Smt. Jyoti Kumari, IAS, officers of A&N Administration, Chief Engineer, (i/c), APWD, Shri Tej Bahadur, Pramukh, Panchayat Samiti, Prothapur, Smt. Champa Das, ZP Member, Shri Dasarath Varma, and Pradhan, Neil Kendra, Smt. Pinkey Das were also present on the occasion.

In his address, the Chief Secretary expressed his happiness that this road improvement work has been completed in a time bound manner by APWD. He said, inauguration of any project brings immense joy among the people of an area, which, he said, indicates that the work given to an agency has been done with full dedication. He further congratulated the APWD and its engineering team for executing the project in a time bound manner despite facing numerous challenges viz. shifting men, material and machines to Shaheed Dweep. He further informed that the roads in Shaheed Dweep which needs further improvement will be taken up by APWD. The Chief Secretary informed the gathering about his first visit to Shaheed Dweep in the year 1997. He said, this Island has witnessed a sea change with good number of hotels coming up and increased tourists inflow. There is no comparison of Shaheed Dweep in terms of development then and now.

Pointing that development is important for a particular place, the Chief Secretary said, development has to be carried out in a cautious and in a balanced manner. He further mentioned that with the increase in tourist flow, the power requirement in Shaheed Dweep in future will increase. The GoI has taken a decision to replace diesel-based power generation by installing Solar Plants and Wind Energy Units in A&N Islands. He also informed the gathering about the PM Surya Ghar Muft Bijli Yojana, a Government scheme that aims to provide free electricity to households in India. Under the scheme, households will be provided with a subsidy to install solar panels on their roofs. He said that A&N Administration is propagating this scheme and urged the PRIs to motivate the people to avail this scheme.

Earlier, the Chief Engineer, (i/c), APWD, Shri Tej Bahadur said that inauguration of the road has fulfilled the demands of the residents of Shaheed Dweep, the foundation stone for which was laid in the month of January last year.

The Chief Secretary accompanied by the senior officials of A&N Administration also visited Zonal Library, Power House, Sitapur Beach, Solar Project site, Laxmanpur Beach. He also held meeting with PRIs & general public and hoteliers.

wherein all the locals and tourists could enjoy their evening. He congratulated all for the celebration of the Birth Anniversary of Swami Vivekananda and asked to follow the values and teachings of Swami Vivekananda.

Vivekananda's life is full of values and inspiration which motivates every person, he said. He urged the younger generation to make their life more meaningful by emulating the path shown by Swamiji. The Chief Secretary through a story from the life of Swami Vivekananda motivated the children to be focused on their goal/aim and not to get distracted with the negative things around them.

The Chief Secretary appreciated the colorful cultural programmes presented by the school children, especially the dance performances of tiny tots of GSSS Shaheed Dweep.

Earlier, paying rich tributes, the Chief Secretary garlanded the portrait of Swami Vivekananda on the occasion. He also visited the Govt. Stalls set up at the Mela Ground and interacted with the officials present there.

In her welcome address, the Pradhan, Gram Panchayat, Neil Kendra, Ms. Pinkey Das informed that since 1993, 'Vivekananda Mela' is organized at Shaheed Dweep involving all the people to commemorate the birth anniversary of Swami Vivekananda. The Mela which was inaugurated today will continue upto January 18 during which cultural programmes and sports events will be organized for the entertainment of the general public and visitors, she added.

Colorful cultural programmes viz. folk dances of different States and speech & skit on the life of Swami Vivekananda presented by the school students of Shaheed Dweep drew loud applause from the audience. The inaugural function concluded with the vote of thanks proposed by the Pramukh, Panchayat Samiti, Prothrapur, Ms. Champa Das.

Soon after the inauguration, people were seen frequenting the stall put up in the Mela. During the weeklong Mela, visitors can immerse themselves in this lively atmosphere, indulging in a delightful array of delicious eatables and snacks being sold at the Mela. Those with a love for handicrafts and local merchandise will find an enticing range of unique items to explore and cherish. Various Departments of the Administration have also set up vibrant stalls that beautifully showcase their activities and remarkable achievements, drawing the attention of both islanders and tourists. The atmosphere was brimming with festivity, making it a delightful evening for participants, sharing intriguing details about each site. One particularly captivating revelation was the history of Corbyn's Cove itself. Dr. Sircar explained that the area was originally divided into South Corbyn's Cove and North Corbyn's Cove, named after Henry Fisher Corbyn, the first head of the Andamanese Home in the 1860s. While South Corbyn's Cove now retains the name, North Corbyn's Cove was located near the current North Bay.

The event concluded with the Chief Secretary expressing his commitment to continuing this educational initiative. "This walk provides a unique opportunity to discover the islands' vibrant heritage. We are determined to organize more such events to engage and educate the public about our history," he stated.

The Corbyn's Cove Heritage Walk not only celebrated the legacy of the Islands but also underscored the importance of preserving and promoting their cultural heritage for future generations.

whatever field they choose. He also informed the students about the epoch making speech by Swami Vivekananda at the final session of the Parliament of Religions on September 27, 1893, in Chicago, America.

On this occasion, a Yoga session was conducted from 6 am to 7.30 am at Netaji Stadium Ground followed by a Youth Rally at 8 am from Netaji Stadium. Shri Omkaratmanand, Secretary, RK Mission, Sri Vijaya Puram flagged off the Youth Rally from Netaji Stadium which culminated at Swami Vivekananda statue at JNRM. The rally started from Netaji Stadium and passed through Clock Tower - Model School- Post Office- Bengali Club- LIC Building- Gandhi Statue- Clock Tower- Narayan Chowk- Swimming Pool- Girls School- R.K. Mission and culminated at Vivekananda Statue JNRM, Sri Vijaya Puram.

In addition, a special painting event 'Art for Cause' was also conducted by the Department of Sports & Youth Affairs and Nehru Yuva Kendra (NYK), Sri Vijaya Puram at 10 am in Andaman Club, Sri Vijaya Puram, a press release from Department of Sports & Youth Affairs said.

Swami Vivekananda Jayanti and National Youth Day celebrated at VKNPV, Ranchi Tekri

Sri Vijaya Puram, Jan. 12
Vivekananda Kendra Nagar Palika Vidyalaya (VKNPV), Ranchi Tekri, celebrated Swami Vivekananda Jayanti and National Youth Day with great fervour today at Dr. B R Ambedkar Auditorium, Sri Vijaya Puram. The event commenced at 10 am with an enthusiastic gathering of students, staff, and dignitaries. Dr. Avijit Roy, Deputy Director (Health), Directorate of Health Services, A&N Administration, was the chief guest of the celebration while Shri. Ashim Kumar Paul, EE- I (Wks), Sri Vijaya Puram Municipal Council was the guest of honour.

The chief guest in his address praised the school for its efforts in nurturing young minds and organizing meaningful activities to celebrate the legacy of Swami Vivekananda. He encouraged the students to follow the great leader's principles of self-discipline, dedication, and service to the nation.

Smti Sangita Chander, Headmistress, welcomed the gathering and highlighted the significance of Swami Vivekananda's teachings and their relevance to youth empowerment. Susri Varsha Bujone, Secretary, VKV in her speech, appreciated the cultural performances and emphasized the role of education in shaping a progressive and responsible youth.

Prizes were awarded to the winners of various competitions held earlier in connection with Swami Vivekananda Jayanti and Samarth Bharat Parv during the ceremony. Smti Usha Kumari, teacher of VKNPV, was felicitated for her lifetime service.

The students presented cultural performances on the theme 'Awakening the Youth' including dances, mime, song and skit, showcasing Swami Vivekananda's ideals and emphasizing the importance of youth in nation-building, a press release from VKNPV, Ranchi Tekri said.
