Union Minister Smt. Raksha Nikhil Khadse to undertake 'Jai Hind' Padyatra as part of Parakram Diwas Celebrations in Sri Vijaya Puram

Over 1500 MY Bharat Youth Volunteers to join Padyatra honouring Netaji Subhas Chandra Bose's Legacy

New Delhi, Jan. 22(PIB)

On the occasion of Parakram Diwas, commemorating the birth anniversary of Netaji Subhas Chandra Bose, Union Minister of State for Youth Affairs & Sports, Smt. Raksha Nikhil Khadse, will undertake 'Jai Hind' Padyatra on 23rd January, 2025 in Sri Vijaya Puram, Andaman and Nicobar Islands. This event, a tribute to the indomitable spirit of Netaji, will bring together 1500 MY Bharat Youth Volunteers and youth leaders in a celebration of India's freedom movement and the enduring legacy of Subhas Chandra Bose.

The Padyatra will cover a scenic route of approximately 5 kilometres, starting from Flag Point and culminating at Netaji Stadium, symbolizing the sacrifices of India's freedom fighters. The route of the Padyatra will be Flag Point → Netaji Subhas Chandra Bose Statue → Swimming Pool → Y Narayan Chowk → Cellular Jail → Water Sports Complex → Swimming Pool → Marina Park Chowk → Vikas Bhawan (ANIIDCO) → Fire Brigade → Annapurna Hotel → Police Masjid → Tennis Court → Netaji Stadium (Finishing Point).

It will feature various activities to honour Netaji's contributions and raise awareness about his vision for an independent and progressive India. During the course of Rally, cultural programme will be conducted at 4 venues i.e. Netaji Subhas Chandra Bose Statue, National Memorial Cellular Jail, Y Narayan Chowk and Fire Brigade.

Event Highlights

► Competitions for Youth: A series of contests with the theme 'Subhas Chandra Bose and the Freedom Movement' will include painting, essay writing, quiz, and declamation competitions to inspire and engage the youth in understanding the sacrifices and strategies of Netaji during the independence struggle.

► Cultural Performances: The event will open with group songs, traditional dances, and other cultural performances celebrating the life and ideals of Subhas Chandra Bose.

► Exhibition and Stalls:

- A photo gallery dedicated to Netaji's life and milestones in the freedom movement.
- Stalls showcasing local handicrafts and promoting the artistry of the Andaman & Nicobar Islands.
- Youth Icon Felicitation: Prominent youth leaders and achievers will be honoured for their contributions to nation-building and societal development.
- Tribute by Army Officers: Army officers and their families will be invited to participate, emphasizing the link between Netaji's legacy and India's defence forces.

'JAI HIND' Padyatra in Sri Vijaya Puram marks the fifth in series of 24 events planned to commemorate 75 years of the Constitution and celebrate India's vibrant cultural diversity. As part of this year-long celebration, two such padyatras are being organized every month by MY Bharat volunteers across the country, fostering patriotism and a deeper connection to India's rich heritage.

The Ministry invites the youth across India to participate by registering on the MY Bharat Portal (www.mybharat.gov.in) and joining this march of pride to honour Netaji's legacy and his vision for a united and self-reliant India.

District Administration, SA organizes rally to commemorate the 10th anniversary of 'Beti Bachao Beti Padhao' Scheme

Sri Vijaya Puram, Jan.22

The Ministry of Women & Child Development, Government of India, proudly celebrates the successful completion of 10 years of the Beti Bachao Beti Padhao (BBBP) scheme. In alignment with this, the ICDS Urban Project, under the Directorate of Social Welfare, Andaman & Nicobar Administration, commemorated the milestone today at the historic Cellular Jail, Sri Vijaya Puram.

Shri Arjun Sharma, IAS, Deputy Commissioner, South Andaman, graced the occasion as the chief guest while Shri Ravindra Kumar, Director, Directorate of Social Welfare was the guest of honor. The event commenced with a Pledge on BBBP, led by the Director (SW), along with the senior officials, staff and ICDS field functionaries of the Social Welfare Department.

Following the pledge, the Deputy Commissioner, South Andaman officially flagged off the rally from the historic Cellular Jail. Participants, numbering around 170, marched towards Ghanta Ghar, carrying a message of promoting the importance of girl child, fighting gender-based discrimination, and discouraging sex-selective practices. The rally was impactful and successful, a press release received here said.

District Administration (Nicobars) celebrates 10th Year of 'Beti Bachao Beti Padhao' initiative

Car Nicobar, Jan. 22

The District Administration, Nicobars has commenced the grand celebration today, marking the 10th Anniversary of Beti Bachao Beti Padhao Scheme, a flagship initiative aimed at promoting gender equality, girl child education and empowerment of girls.

The highlight of the event was the Cycle Rally, flagged off by the Deputy Commissioner (Nicobar), Shri Amit Kale, IAS, from the DC's Office which passed through Malacca, Gandhi Statue and concluded at Kuchat Park. The Rally saw participation from Students, Anganwadi Workers, Govt. Official and members of the public, symbolizing unity and determination of the community in advancing the cause of Beti Bachao Beti Padhao (BBBP).

Speaking on the occasion, the Deputy Commissioner stated that the 10th Anniversary of Beti Bachao Beti Padhao (BBBP) reminds us of how far we have come and the work that still lies ahead. It is a collective mission and today's events are a reflection of our communities unwavering dedication to ensuring that every girl child receives the respect, opportunity nutrition and education she deserve. The Deputy Commissioner has also urged everyone to participate in this historic celebration and join hands in building a brighter future for our daughters. Together, let us continue to uphold the values of equality, education and empowerment, he said.

Earlier, the celebration commenced with an Oath taking ceremony at the Deputy Commissioner's Office where participants pledged their dedication to the cause of safeguarding and nurturing the rights with a Signature Campaign allowing citizens to express their support and solidarity with the Beti Bachao Beti Padhao (BBBP) movements.

The Child Development Project Officer (CDPO), Nicobar, Smti Sunita Kumari highlighted the significant achievements of the BBBP initiative over the past decade and she emphasized the collective efforts made by the District to improve gender ratios, promote girls education and ensure a safer environment for them.

Similar programmes were also organized at Nancowrie group of Islands and Campbell Bay, a press release from DC (Nicobars) said.

Celebrating 10 years of Beti Bachao Beti Padhao: A decade of empowering girls and promoting gender equality

Diglipur, Jan. 22

The Government of India is proud to mark the 10th anniversary of the Beti Bachao Beti Padhao (BBBP) scheme, a pioneering initiative launched on January 22, 2015, to ensure the survival, safety and education of the girl child. ICDS Project (Rural) Diglipur under the Directorate of Social Welfare in coordination with line Departments organized an Oath taking and awareness programme on Beti Bachao Beti Padhao Programme along with Signature Campaign at GPOA Hall, Diglipur to sensitize the community people about prevention of gender-based sex-selective elimination, ensuring education for girls and empowering girls.

The Assistant Commissioner, Diglipur, North Andaman, Shri Kamaleshwar Rao S, IAS, graced the occasion as the chief guest. Dr. H.M. Siddaraju, Chief Medical Officer (CHC Diglipur) and Smt. Aarti Singh, Assistant Director (Agriculture), Diglipur were the guests of honor.

Speaking on the occasion, the chief guest and other dignitaries highlighted the improvement in the child sex ratio, signaling a shift in attitudes toward the birth and care of girls. Smt. Indira Devi, Child Development Project Officer welcomed the gathering and highlighted about empowering girls and creating a more equitable society, where every girl can thrive, pursue her dreams, and contribute meaningfully to nation-building, a press release from CDPO, Diglipur said.
