Returning Officer/Deputy Commissioner, SA and District Election Officer, South Andaman, A&N Islands bagged the 'Best Electoral Practices Award, 2024-25'

Sri Vijaya Puram, Jan.25

The President of India, Smt Droupadi Murmu graced and addressed the 15th National Voters' Day celebrations in New Delhi today. The President presented the Best Electoral Practices Awards to State and District Officials, who demonstrated exemplary performance in ensuring the smooth conduct of elections.

Shri Arjun Sharma, IAS, Returning Officer/Deputy Commissioner, South Andaman and District Election Officer, South Andaman, A&N Islands has bagged the 'Best Electoral Practices Award, 2024-25' for his exemplary execution of the 2024 Lok Sabha Elections in the Andaman and Nicobar Islands.

On the occasion of 'National Voters' Day' celebrations at New Delhi today, the President of India, Smt. Droupadi Murmu conferred the Award to Deputy Commissioner, South Andaman, Shri Arjun Sharma, IAS, for demonstrating exemplary performance in ensuring the smooth conduct of General Elections- 2024.

Later, speaking to PTI, Shri Arjun Sharma said, "The Lok Sabha polls in the Islands was a logistical triumph, overcoming geographical isolation and challenging terrain. Extensive manpower planning ensured Polling Stations were set up across remote Islands, including areas inhabited by Particularly Vulnerable Tribal Groups (PVTGs)." "Members of the reclusive Shompen tribe also participated in the poll process, marking it a historic milestone. The Election Commission's SVEEP campaigns played a pivotal role, raising awareness among indigenous communities. In the recently concluded Special Summary Revision, Jarawa tribes of Andamans were included in the

3 food products from Andaman and Nicobar Islands get GI recognition

Prime Minister, Shri Narendra Modi announced the GI tag for seven products from the Andaman and Nicobar Islands, including Nicobari Virgin Coconut Oil, Nicobar Coconut, and Andaman Karen Musley Rice. This initiative aims to economically empower tribal communities, promoting their cultural heritage and sustainable practices globally.

In the recent 118th episode of Mann Ki Baat, Prime Minister, Shri Narendra Modi announced the Geographical Indication (GI) tag for as many as 7 products from the Andaman and Nicobar Islands. The beautiful Andaman and Nicobar Islands are raising awareness both for their nature's beauty and also for some amazing leaps in the marketing of tribal products. PM Modi recently hailed the Nicobari Tavi-i-Ngaich Virgin Coconut Oil, Nicobar Coconut, and Andaman Karen Musley Rice among these seven products.

While addressing the nation, PM Modi also focused on the economic empowerment of the tribal communities with initiatives like the Virgin Coconut Oil project. Self-Help Groups mainly consisting of women are being brought together and are being trained to market and brand so that the product is successful all over the world.

"This is a big step towards economically empowering our tribal communities," the Prime Minister noted, adding that the efforts of these groups will soon make Andaman and Nicobar a global name in Indigenous products.

The Virgin Coconut

Oil, made traditionally, is unrefined, unbleached, and free of chemicals or preservatives. Its GI tag recognition underscores its authenticity and high quality.

Here's a brief about the Musley rice and Nicobari coconut and why they are different: Andaman Karen Musley Rice: This is an Indigenous rice variety that has been acclaimed for its aromatic flavour, rich nutritional content, and resilience in saline soils. The Karen community has cultivated it in a traditional way representing their cultural heritage and sustainable farming practices.

Nicobari Coconut: With rich oil content and strong flavour, the Nicobari Coconut attests that the soil of the region and its climate was indeed very friendly. It is now the Virgin Coconut

GREETINGS

I extend my heartfelt greetings to everyone on the joyous occasion of the Foundation Day of the Union Territory of Dadra and Nagar Haveli and Daman and Diu, celebrated on 26th January 2025.

This significant day commemorates the historic unification of two vibrant Union Territories into one on January 26, 2020. It also serves as a tribute to the rich cultural diversity, natural splendor and historical heritage that this Union Territory embodies, enriching the fabric of our nation.

Dadra and Nagar Haveli enchant visitors with its lush greenery, serene landscapes, and attractions like Vanganga Lake and Satmaliya Deer Park. Daman, with its sun-kissed beaches, heritage forts, cascading waterfalls, swaying palms and welcoming churches, offers a tranquil coastal experience reminiscent of a tropical paradise. Meanwhile, Diu, renowned for its idyllic beaches and thrilling water sports, adds to the vibrant and unified identity of this Union Territory.

As we celebrate this remarkable day, let us renew our dedication to preserving our cultural legacy, safeguarding the environment, and fostering harmony and unity within our communities.

On this special occasion, I extend my warmest wishes to the people of Dadra and Nagar Haveli and Daman and Diu residing in the Andaman and Nicobar Islands. May this day bring joy, unity, and inspiration to all as we strive towards the Prime Minister's vision of a Viksit Bharat.

A&N Police hosts NAMAN cultural evening at Marina Park

Sri Vijaya Puram, Jan.25

The 73rd A&N Police Raising Week came to a grand and emotional close with the spectacular NAMAN cultural evening, organized and hosted by the A&N Police at Marina Park today. This remarkable event was dedicated to honoring the brave martyrs, police heroes, and freedom fighters, who made the ultimate sacrifice for the nation. With a series of breath-taking performances, the evening left an indelible impression on all those in attendance.

The program commenced with a heartfelt tribute to the martyrs and freedom fighters, setting a solemn yet proud tone for the evening. It was a fitting start to a celebration that showcased the unwavering courage and dedication of the nation's heroes. The event featured a wide range of performances from the A&N Police Band, Police Entertainment Team, and even the Police Recruits.

One of the evening's standout moments was the mesmerizing dance performance titled 'Bharat Ki Beti - 'Rang De Basanti'', which honored the strength, resilience, and determination of women in India. The dance was met with resounding applause from the audience, who appreciated its powerful depiction of women's pivotal role in the nation's progress and empowerment.

Another highlight was a thought-provoking skit on a terrorist attack, performed by police personnel. The skit vividly portrayed the challenges faced by law enforcement and the sacrifices made by officers in ensuring the safety and security of the nation. The cultural program also included an array of vibrant musical performances, traditional dances, and other dynamic acts that beautifully showcased India's rich cultural heritage.

The event was met with overwhelming appreciation from the public, who gathered at Marina Park to celebrate and pay tribute to the selfless heroes who have tirelessly worked to safeguard the nation's freedom and security, a press release from SP (APU)said.

National Voters' Day celebrated in Car Nicobar

Car Nicobar, Jan.25

The vibrant celebration of National Voters' Day (NVD) 2025 in Nicobar District was marked by immense enthusiasm, engaging programs, and widespread participation from the community. Held under the theme "Nothing Like Voting, I Vote for Sure," the event highlighted the significance of every vote and the power of democratic participation.

The main function was held at the District Library, Car Nicobar, where the chief guest, Shri Amit Kale, IAS, District Election Officer/Deputy Commissioner, Nicobar District, inaugurated the celebrations by lighting the ceremonial lamp. Other distinguished guests included Shri Muner Ahmed, Assistant Commissioner (HQ), Car Nicobar, Shri Solomon, Dy.SP(N), Heads of Departments, Tribal Council Leaders, school students, and election staff, all coming together to make this event a grand success. The program included the administration of the Voters' Pledge, emphasizing the importance of National Voters' Day and voter participation. A special moment was the distribution of EPICs (Electors Photo Identity Cards) to newly registered voters, marking a step towards empowering citizens to exercise their right to vote. The day also celebrated the creative spirit and active participation of the community. Winners of the Essay, Painting, and Quiz Competitions, held under the Systematic Voters' Education and Electoral Participation (SVEEP) campaign, were recognized for their outstanding contributions. Additionally, two Best Booth Level Officers (BLOs) were awarded certificates and cash prizes for their dedicated efforts in promoting electoral participation.

To spread the message far and wide, a Cycle Rally was organized, with participants cycling from the District Office to the District Library via Gandhi Chowk. The rally, flagged off by the Deputy Commissioner, saw enthusiastic participation from school students, Government staff, and local leaders. This fun-filled and eco-friendly initiative added a special touch to the celebrations, bringing people together in the spirit of voter awareness.

Vibrant awareness campaigns were conducted across the district. Messages related to NVD and the theme of active voter participation was shared through WhatsApp groups, posters, and banners displayed at polling stations, the District Election Office, and villages. BLOs across Nicobar District organized programs to ensure widespread awareness and administered the NVD pledge within their departments.

The Assistant Commissioner of Nancowrie and Campbell Bay Sub-Divisions also conducted their own celebrations, ensuring that the importance of voter participation was emphasized in every corner of the District, a press release from DC, SA said.

GI recognized Nicobari products

Some of the other items which have been approved for GI recognition include the Nicobari Hodi (an outrigger canoe), Nicobari Mat (also known as Chatri-hileuoi), Nicobari Hut (To Chanvi Pati Nyi hupul), and Padauk Wood Craft. The NGO, Human Welfare Association, under the guidance of Padma Shri Rajani Kant, has given such a push to the initiative, which will collectively help preserve and promote the cultural heritage of the Andaman and Nicobar Islands.

Step toward global recognition

Recognition of these products is not just a matter of pride but a significant economic opportunity for the region. The National Bank for Agriculture and Rural Development (NABARD), along with the Islands' Administration, facilitated the GI tagging process to ensure the unique identity of these tribal products is preserved and promoted globally.

As the Andaman and Nicobar Islands gain recognition for their indigenous products, the collaborative efforts of the government, self-help groups, and NGOs are paving the way for sustainable development and economic empowerment. With Virgin Coconut Oil leading the charge, the region is well on its way to making its mark on the world stage in celebration of its cultural heritage and natural bounty. 3 participants from A&N Islands nominated as special invitees to attend Republic Day function in New Delhi

Sri Vijaya Puram, Jan. 25

Jal Jeevan Mission is a Central Flagship Scheme to extend 100% FHTC coverage in rural area under Ministry of Jal Shakti, GoI. Jal Jeevan Mission's main objective is to ensure safe, sustainable and adequate water supply to all rural households and empowering Panchayat Raj Institution to take over water supply scheme including empowerment of women through greater participation in rural water supply management.

Accordingly, to ensure representation of JJM activist during Republic Day celebration on 26th January, 2025, 3 participants from A&N Islands have been nominated as special invitees to attend the Republic Day function at Kartavya Path, New Delhi. It includes Village Water Sanitation Committee Chairman & Pradhan, Sippighat, Ms.Jyoti and Village Water Sanitary Committee Chairman & Pradhan, Chouldari, Ms Tapashi Saha and Ms Yasmeen, Laboratory staff, RCD Wimberlygunj under APWD.

All the three special invitees along with their spouses are participating in Republic Day function at Kartavya Path at the invitation of National Jal Jeevan Mission, Ministry of Jal Shakthi, GoI.

Ms Jyoti and Ms Yasmeen will be participating in the Republic Day event as "Water Warriors" for their pioneering contribution in operation and maintenance of water supply scheme and water quality monitoring and surveillance respectively under their jurisdiction.

Ms Jyoti, Pradhan, Sippighat has the distinction of being only Pradhan of a panchayat in A&N Islands operating and maintaining water supply within the jurisdiction of her panchayat successfully. Similarly, Ms Tapashi Saha, Pradhan, Chouldari has played crucial role in arranging land for development of ponds at Badmash Pahar and Bachra Pahar area of Chouldari which shall become main source of water supply in her area. With her assistance, recently, 4 Nos ponds have been developed in Chouldari area, 3 out of them are fully operational and one pond may become operational after next monsoon. Due to successful completion of these project, Chouldari has become free from water shortage and water in the area is supplied similar to other panchayat instead of once in 4-5 days, Ms Yasmeen has been working in the water testing laboratory at Kamsarat Nallah under RCD Wimberlygunj. Her sincere effort has ensured that water from various sources are tested and water quality is monitored in Ferrargunj Teshil. She ensures to upload all the water quality report in WQIMS of Ministry of Jal Shakthi, GOI.

Their participation shall encourage other Pradhans to take up active participation in water sources and assets management of water supply under their jurisdiction and greater awareness among public for safe and sustainable water supply in A&N Islands, a press release received here said.

'National Girl Child Day' celebrated at N&M Andaman District

Mayabunder, Jan. 25

The District Child Protection Unit, N&M Andaman, organized a vibrant and inspiring celebration of 'National Girl Child Day' at the Forest Labour (Welfare) Club in Mayabunder today under the guidance of Smti Nandini Maharaj, IAS, Deputy Commissioner of North and Middle Andaman. The event brought together around 200 students from various schools, including Govt. Model Sr. Sec. School Mayabunder, to celebrate the empowerment and rights of the girl child.

Smti Nandini Maharaj, Deputy Commissioner, N&MA, was the chief guest at the event while Ms. Shweta K. Sugathan, IPS, Superintendent of Police, N & M Andaman, graced the occasion as the guest of honor. Other special guests included Dr. Christina Rossetti, Medical Officer (i/c), RPH, Mayabunder, Shri Prakash Howladar, Deputy Education Officer, Mayabunder, Shri Pradeep Kumar Singh, Block Development Officer/CDPO (i/c), Rangat.

In her address, the chief guest emphasized the crucial role that boys and men play in supporting women empowerment. She highlighted that empowering women is not just the responsibility of women themselves but also of the men and boys in society. By encouraging men and boys to actively participate in promoting gender equality, we can create an environment where women are truly supported and uplifted. She called for a collective effort to break down gender stereotypes and ensure that both men and women work together towards a more inclusive and equitable society.

In her address, Ms. Sugathan shared her journey of overcoming barriers and emphasized the importance of breaking down gender stereotypes.

The event commenced with an energetic rally conducted by the students from Govt. Model Sr. Sec. School, Mayabunder to the Forest Labour (Welfare) Club, Mayabunder. The celebration continued with various cultural activities, including folk dance, skit, and fancy dress competition, all of which highlighted the talent, creativity, and enthusiasm of the young participants. Through their performances, the students conveyed powerful messages of girl child empowerment, equality, and the importance of protecting and nurturing every girl. Mementos were distributed as a token of appreciation to honor the efforts of all participants.

This celebration not only raised awareness about the rights and empowerment of girl children but also provided a platform for students to showcase their creativity and leadership skills. The program benefitted approximately 200 students, inspiring them to be advocates for change and champions of the rights of girls in their communities, a press release from DC (N&MA) said.
