Andaman Lt. Governor hikes minimum wages for all category of workers

An official said that the decision to increase the minimum wage was taken considering the financial stability of the workers

Sri Vijaya Puram, July 9

Andaman and Nicobar Islands Lt. Governor and Vice Chairman of Islands Development Agency (IDA) Admiral D K Joshi, (Retd) has revised the minimum rates of wages of workers in all the categories, an official statement said.

The revised wage rates are applicable from July 1, 2025.

As per the revised worker wages, the daily wage of unskilled workers will now be Rs 647 (Rs 19,410 approx per month), semi-skilled or unskilled supervisory category will get Rs 728 per day (Rs 21,840 approx per month), skilled or clerical Rs 851 per day (Rs 25,530 approx per month) and highly skilled worker will get Rs 934 per day (Rs 28,020 approx per month), a statement issued by Raj Niwas said.

"The wages were revised across all six schedules of employment in addition to Government departments, offices, industrial establishments as mandated under the provisions of Minimum Wages Act, 1948 in the UT of Andaman and Nicobar Islands w.e.f. 1st July, 2025," the statement said.

A senior official at the Union Territory Labour department said, "One can download the order copy of revised rates of minimum wages from www.labour.and.nic.in. All employers of the establishments have been requested to comply with the revised rates, failing which, punitive action as per the provisions of Minimum Wages Act, 1948 and its Rules made thereunder shall be initiated."

Last year also, the Lieutenant Governor hiked the minimum wage and then it was affected from July 1, 2024. As per the previous circular, the minimum wage per day for unskilled worker was Rs 633 per day, semi-skilled or unskilled supervisory used to get Rs 714 per day, the skilled or clerical staff used to get Rs 837 per day and highly skilled workers used to get Rs 920 per day.

The decision to increase the minimum wage was taken considering the financial stability of the workers, an official said. (This was published in Deccan Herald on July 9, 2025 quoting PTL)

Sri Vijaya Puram, July 9 The High Value Agriculture Development Agency (HVADA) and Department of Agriculture, Andaman and Nicobar Administration, in collaboration with the National Bee Board, Ministry of Agriculture and Farmers Welfare, is organizing a two-day training programme on Scientific Beekeeping. This initiative is taken up under the National Beekeeping and Honey Mission (NBHM) scheme to promote sustainable apiculture practices and enhance rural livelihoods. The training is being held across 30 Gram Panchayats of Andaman and Nicobar Islands and tribal villages of Car Nicobar and Little Andaman, commencing from 25th

June, 2025 onwards. This training programme has been organized with a focus on expanding farmers' participation and strengthening the foundation for community-led agriculture development in these islands. To facilitate effective knowledge dissemination, a beginner's guide/training manual on Scientific Beekeeping was distributed in Hindi, Bengali, and Nicobari languages. The training featured interactive sessions led by subject-matter experts, offering both theoretical knowledge and practical insights into scientific beekeeping practices. A total of 690 participants including farmers, members of Self Help Groups, and tribal youth have gained valuable skills and understanding in the field of scientific beekeeping through this initiative. The programme will continue till 17th July, 2025, covering 10 additional Panchayats across various zones, further extending its reach and impact, a press release from Directorate of Agriculture said.

76th Van Mahotsav celebrated at Biological Park, Chidiyatapu

Sri Vijaya Puram, July 9 The 76th Van Mahotsav, a festival dedicated to tree planting at the onset of the monsoon, was celebrated with enthusiasm at the Biological Park, Chidiyatapu by staff and workers. On the occasion, fruit-bearing Jamun (Syzygium spp.) seedlings were planted in vacant forest areas, while littoral species Poon (Calophyllum spp.) were planted along the coastal area. Once matured, the Jamun trees are expected to support local and endemic bird species, especially pigeons by providing a valuable food source. The Poon trees, which are otherwise difficult to establish naturally in coastal regions, are envisioned as future sustainable tree crops. As part of the outreach initiative, the team also visited Chidiyatapu village, where they interacted with the local community. Lemon, Orange and Guava seedlings were distributed and planted alongside the villagers, with encouragement to continue growing fruit-bearing trees in their backyards. These species are expected to contribute to the villagers' livelihoods in the future. Shri A.C. Tilak, Deputy Director of Biological Park, Chidiyatapu, highlighted the nutritional and economic benefits of citrus species. He also informed the villagers that the Forest Deptt. will be distributing fruit-bearing and ornamental seedlings free of cost throughout the month of July, a press release from Biological Park, Chidiyatapu said.
