9 children of Onge tribe who cleared class 10 exam have taken admission in class 11 in Andaman

Nine children of Onge tribe, a Particularly Vulnerable Tribal Group (PVTG), in Andaman and Nicobar Islands have cleared the CBSE class 10 board examination and have taken admission in Class 11, an official said.

The nine Onge students, including five girls and four boys, have been admitted to Class 11 in the Arts stream at PM Shri Government Senior Secondary School, R K Pur at Dugong Creek in Little Andaman.

"We are happy to announce that they cleared their CBSE 10th Board Examination held recently. This is the first time Onge students have reached this educational milestone. Their admissions were formalised and their classes commenced on July 15, 2025," said Prakash Tirkey, school teacher at Dugong Creek.

He said, "Onge students are very bright and hardworking. They are willing to pursue higher education, and they would like to participate in mainstream society. They are also urging for good job opportunities."

The nine students are Alagae, Kokoi, Mukesh, Palith, Sonia, Bolling, Gitae, Otikalai and Suma.

Excited over his educational journey, Alagae said, "I would like to become a forest officer to protect my forest and land and prevent encroachment activities. Forest is everything to us, and it is our duty to protect it from exploitation by outsiders."

Another girl student Otikalae expressed her desire to become a school teacher to promote and motivate her community in higher education, while Mukesh's dream is to become a Tribal welfare officer.

Andaman and Nicobar Tribal Welfare department Secretary, Satyendra Singh Dursawat, said, "This remarkable achievement of nine Onge students from Dugong Creek reflects the extraordinary resilience and potential of the PVTG community. This historic milestone was made possible through the visionary guidance and leadership of our Lieutenant Governor and Vice Chairman of Islands Development Agency (IDA), Admiral D K Joshi (Retd) and our chief secretary."

A special classroom for them was built after consultation with officials of Andaman Adim Janjati Vikas Samiti (AAJVS) and the Principal of PM SHRI GSS R K Pur.

To ensure a smooth transition, the AAJVS and Education department have made comprehensive arrangements, including dedicated hostels for boys and girls near the school. The AAJVS has also provided essential items such as stationery, clothing, ration items, and other school materials.

"We are providing round-the-clock support, continuous care and guidance to them. The faculty and staff at PM SHRI GSS R K Pur school is working closely with the Onge students to facilitate their adjustment from their native environment in Dugong Creek to the formal education system. The students have shown

44th India-Indonesia Coordinated Patrol

Bilateral exercise reinforces shared commitment of both nations to ensure peace, security, and stability in Indo-Pacific region

Sri Vijaya Puram, July 21

The 44th edition of the India-Indonesia Coordinated Patrol (IND-INDO CORPAT) commenced on July 13 at Sri Vijaya Puram, marking another significant step in the ongoing maritime cooperation between the Indian Navy and the Indonesian Navy (TNI AL). This bilateral exercise reinforces the shared commitment of both nations to ensure peace, security, and stability in the Indo-Pacific region.

As part of the opening phase of the coordinated patrol, the Indonesian Naval Ship KRI Lambung Mangkurat arrived at Sri Vijaya Puram, accompanied by the operational deployment of CN235 military aircraft. The arrival of these participating units signaled the beginning of joint operations and coordinated surveillance along the International Maritime Boundary Line (IMBL) between the two nations.

Since its inception in 2002, IND-INDO CORPAT has evolved into a vital initiative for enhancing maritime domain awareness, strengthening interoperability, and deterring non-traditional maritime threats such as smuggling, piracy, and illegal fishing.

The commencement ceremony included official calls, professional exchanges, and operational briefings between the Naval personnel of both

District Administration, SA conducts Special Revenue Camp Court for PM Surya Ghar: Muft Bijli Yojana scheme at Wandoor and Swaraj Dweep

Sri Vijaya Puram, July 21

The District Administration, South Andaman, conducted Special Revenue Camp Courts at Gram Panchayat Wandoor and Govind Nagar, Swaraj Dweep, to facilitate the implementation of the PM Surya Ghar: Muft Bijli Yojna and address revenue-related grievances.

Shri Vinayak Chamadia, IAS, Sub-Divisional Magistrate, emphasized the importance of the scheme and directed Revenue Authorities to expedite pending cases to ensure timely benefits for eligible applicants. The Executive Engineer, Electricity Department, highlighted the need for proper documentation for name transfers in electricity connections, which is essential for scheme implementation.

At Wandoor, four mutation cases were approved, aiding in smooth scheme delivery. In Swaraj Dweep, a camp was held at Govind Nagar Panchayat Hall to spread awareness about the rooftop solar initiative. Officials from NRSE and the Electricity Department provided guidance, clarified queries, and assisted with registrations. Informational pamphlets were also distributed.

International Chess Day celebrated with Open Blitz Chess Tournament Around 200 chess enthusiasts participated

Sri Vijaya Puram, July 21

To commemorate International Chess Day on 20th July, the Directorate of Education, in collaboration with the Andaman & Nicobar Chess Association (ANCA), organized an Open Blitz Chess Tournament yesterday at the auditorium of Govt. Girls Sr. Sec. School, Sri Vijaya Puram. Celebrated under the global theme "Every Move Counts," the event highlighted the strategic depth and life lessons embedded in the game of chess-where every decision matters, both on and off the board.

Shri Mohd. Irshad Ahmed, Assistant Director (PE/Sports), Directorate of Education, was the chief guest, while Shri Narasimha Moorthy, Assistant Commandant, IRBn, was the guest of honour. They jointly inaugurated the tournament by making the ceremonial first move on the top board.

The event witnessed participation from around 200 chess enthusiasts. After a series of fast-paced and thrilling matches, Yuvan Singh emerged as the winner, securing the first position, followed by Jaivardhan Rao K in second place and Rohan Singh in third. Shrestha Vijay D claimed the fourth position, while AFM Yashwant V and AFM Nimish Bantupalli secured the fifth and sixth positions, respectively. PS Satish finished seventh, J S Virat took the eighth spot, while B Lalith and ACM Chirag Kumar A secured ninth and tenth positions, respectively.

A major highlight of the evening was the chess exhibition, with friendly games played in the open, at the scenic Marina Park Walkway. Park visitors, families, and tourists paused to witness the intense yet friendly matches, many even trying their hand at the game.

Following the exhibition, the prize distribution ceremony was held at the scenic Marina Park Walkway. The top ten winners were felicitated with trophies and certificates, while promising young players who showcased notable performances were also appreciated with gifts, a press release from Education Department said.

countries. These engagements aim to foster deeper understanding and collaboration between the two maritime forces.

During the 44th CORPAT both navies undertook coordinated patrols, sharing operational information, and conducting joint surveillance missions. The CORPAT underlines the readiness and resolve of both navies to uphold freedom of navigation and a rules-based maritime order. The event culminated at Belawan with two IN Ships and one Aircraft participating in closing ceremony.

The India-Indonesia Coordinated Patrol stands as a testament to the strong naval ties and mutual respect between the two maritime neighbours, a press release from HQ ANC said.
