Gukesh stuns Carlsen in Norway: Teen prodigy scores first Classical Win over World No. 1

New Delhi, June 2
Reigning World Champion D. Gukesh defeated World No. 1 Magnus Carlsen in the sixth round of the Norway Chess 2025 tournament in Stavanger City last night. This marks Gukesh's first-ever classical win over

Carlsen. Carlsen had seemed in control for much of the game, but like the unpredictable Stavanger weather, everything changed in a blink. The Indian teenager, playing with the white pieces, held firm under pressure and capitalised on a rare blunder by the 34-year-old Norwegian Grandmaster in the endgame, converting it into a memorable win. It was a stinging defeat for Carlsen, coming just days after he had outplayed Gukesh with the white pieces in Round 1 of the prestigious tournament.

District Administration, A&N Police, Health, Transport, Electricity, and Fire Departments. During the session, the earthquake and fire scenarios for the drill were finalized, and the roles and responsibilities of the Incident Commander and Departmental teams were briefed.

The Adhyaksh, ZPSA, emphasized the importance of active participation by every official and staff member of the Zilla Parishad, noting that such drills enhance disaster awareness and ensure preparedness in the event of an actual emergency in the premises. Shri Sushanth Padha also urged participants to take the drill seriously, given the vulnerability profile of the Union Territory.

The mock drill commenced involving the activation of fire and disaster alarms, execution of safe evacuation procedures, emergency communication with SEOC (1070), DEOC (South Andaman) (1077), ERSS (112), and coordination with resource Departments. Search and rescue operations, first aid provision, and other emergency response measures were also demonstrated. All response teams performed efficiently, and the drill concluded with the issuance of the 'All Clear' message by the Incident Commander.

Following the drill, a debriefing session was held. Officials from the Resource Departments shared their observations and emphasized the importance of regular conduct of such exercises to strengthen the disaster preparedness of the Zilla Parishad. The Adhyaksh appreciated the efforts of all officials from the Resource Departments for their support and thanked all participants for their active involvement, which contributed to the successful completion of the drill, a press release from ZPSA said.
