this year for listing it in the tentative list of UNESCO World Heritage sites and they are Govt. Saw Mill, Chatham Island, the Karst formation of Baratang, the Nicobarese Tribal Culture Continuity in Nancowry Group of Islands and the active Volcano in Barren Island. On submission of these tentative list proposals, the Administration also received letter from DG, ASI for submitting the preliminary assessment and nomination Dossier for the sites which have already been listed in the tentative list. Now, A&N Administration is under the process for floating the EoI and going ahead with the preparation of the Nomination Dossier, she added.

In his address on the occasion, the ADG, ASI, Shri Janhwij Sharma spoke on ASI's role in protecting India's cultural heritage, including monuments, archaeological sites, and antiquities. The ADG emphasized the ASI's commitment to preserving India's rich cultural heritage for future generations. The ADG touched upon the ASI's conservation efforts to protect monuments from deterioration and environmental damage. He also covered topics such as World Heritage, Project Mausam and Islands of Indian Ocean from trade perspective. A visit to the Cellular Jail and Netaji Subhash Chandra Bose Island has provided a glimpse of the potential, the Union Territory have in terms of proposing certain nomination for world heritage sites, he added.

In the technical session, Dr. Shikha Jain, the Director & Chairperson, DRONAH Foundation through a power point presentation gave an elaborate information about the preparation of World Heritage Nomination Dossier. Dr. Sonali Ghosh, IFS, enlightened the gathering on the criteria and process of listing natural heritage sites under UNESSCO World Heritage Category. Dr. Kasturi Chakraborty, Director, ER, Geological Survey of India spoke on geological significance of sites in Andaman in perspective of geological evolution of A&N Islands.

A group activity on identifying values and attributes for nominated UNESCO's sites was held. This was followed by presentations on the findings by each group and the proposal to take it forward.

In his closing remark, the Chief Secretary thanked the team of domain experts for the insightful discussions with the team from the Administration and non-official members from different communities, which will enable the team from the Administration in having better understanding of the process for nomination and for its proper and elaborate documentation. He said, the Administration is committed to take this forward and efforts will be made to take these sites in the tentative list.

Summing up the discussion, the Secretary (Art& Culture), Ms Jyoti Kumari said, from the four insightful presentations followed by an engaging group discussion, important points that have emerged pertains to the scope for nominations in the cultural category, opportunities for transnational collaboration, preparation of dossier for world heritage nomination for inclusion in tentative list by Sept. 2025, administrative framework and post listing management besides creation of Geo Board in Sri Vijaya Puram with the help of Geological Survey of India. To carry this forward, committees have been formed at District and State Level which is headed by the Chief Secretary. The Secretary also informed about importance of site visitation and detail documentation of the proposals besides exploring other cultural landscapes.

Children to celebrate World Environment Day with 'Rang Utsav' - Painting Competition on Ending Plastic Pollution

Sri Vijaya Puram, June 3
To mark the occasion of World Environment Day 2025, the Education Department of A&N Administration is organizing a vibrant painting competition titled "Rang Utsav" for the children of the Islands. The event will take place on Thursday, June 5, 2025, from 10 AM onwards at the State Library, Middle Point, Sri Vijaya Puram.

The competition's theme, "One Nation, One Mission: End Plastic Pollution," reflects this year's national call to action and aims to inspire young minds to think critically and creatively about environmental issues-especially the urgent challenge of plastic pollution. Children will use art as a medium to express their visions for a cleaner, greener, and more sustainable future.

Open to children of all age groups, Rang Utsav invites budding artists to bring their brushes, imagination, and environmental awareness to life. Whether they enjoy sketching nature, illustrating solutions, or portraying vibrant scenes of a plastic-free world, this is their moment to shine.

Schools, parents, and eco-clubs have been encouraged to actively support children's participation in this creative and meaningful celebration. Don't miss out-join Rang Utsav and be part of the mission to end plastic pollution!

For further details, interested participants may contact 9474225348 or visit the venue directly on the day of the event, a press release from Directorate of Education said.

Series of prog. organized by Deptt. of...

The Department of Science and Technology, A&N Administration, is celebrating World Environment Day with a series of programs, including cloth bag distribution, cleanliness drives, and poster campaigns aimed at raising awareness and promoting environmental conservation. This year's theme is 'Ending Plastic Pollution Globally', aligning the activities with the Mission LiFE initiative's theme of 'Say No to Single-Use Plastic'.

In line with the Plastic Waste Management (PWM) Rules, 2016 (as amended), the manufacture, import, stocking, distribution, sale, and use of various single-use plastic items - including polystyrene products, plastic ear buds, sticks for balloons, disposable cutlery, plates, cups, straws, and plastic packaging films - are prohibited.

Additionally, the A&N Administration has banned several single-use plastic products under Notification No. 186 dated 05.09.2019, including PET bottles under 2 liters, plastic-bodied cigarette lighters, small sachets for personal care and food items, disposable plastic pens, and plastic packaging materials such as bubble wraps. The use, manufacture, and sale of plastic carry bags, regardless of size or thickness, are also banned as per Notification No. 225 dated 24.09.2019. The sale and advertisement of single-use plastics on e-commerce platforms are prohibited as well.

Authorities urged the public to refrain from using banned single-use plastic items and to support these efforts by adopting the following environmentally friendly habits:

- ◆ Use cloth bag for shopping instead of plastic bags.
- ◆ Carry your own water bottle whenever possible.
- ◆ Reuse glass containers/packing plastic items as storage boxes.
- ◆ Participate and mobilize people for clean-up drives of cities and water bodies.
- ◆ Prefer using non-plastic eco-friendly cutlery during gatherings and events.
- ◆ Use menstrual cups instead of sanitary napkins.
- ◆ Use recycled plastic over virgin plastic, whenever possible.
- ◆ Use steel/recyclable plastic lunch boxes and water bottles.
- ◆ Cut the packaging bags used for milk, buttermilk, etc. only partially to avoid plastic bits from mixing into biodegradable waste.
- ◆ Opt for bamboo toothbrushes and neem combs, a press release from Deptt. of S&T said.

well-being and mental clarity. The session saw enthusiastic participation and served as a meaningful step toward raising awareness on substance abuse and the benefits of holistic living, a press release from CDPO, Car Nicobar said.

Chess Summer Camp Zonal Tournament concludes

Sri Vijaya Puram, June 3

The Govt. Girls Senior Secondary School Auditorium in Sri Vijaya Puram was abuzz with excitement as over 150 young chess players from the four chess camps across Sri Vijaya Puram and Wimberlygunj Zones came together for the Zonal Chess Meet - Chess Summer Camp-2025. This event marked the successful culmination of the month-long summer chess training program organized by the Directorate of Education.

Shri Vikram Singh, Director (Education), as the chief guest lauded the dedication and talent of the young participants and expressed his confidence that a Grandmaster would soon emerge from the Islands. He encouraged parents to actively support their children's interest in chess by encouraging regular practice and learning at home.

The event was formally inaugurated by Shri Gyan Sheel Dubey, Head of Office, Directorate of Education, who made the ceremonial first move on the giant chessboard against Smt. Archana Singh, Deputy Director of Education (Planning). The players had undergone a month-long training at four dedicated chess camps held at zonal centers: GMSSS Aberdeen, GMSSS Ferrargunj, GSSS Manglutan, and GSSS Wimberlygunj, a press release from Education Department said.

Progressive farmers from Isles on...

June 3 to June 5, 2025.

Ahead of their departure, the group had a fruitful interaction with the Secretary (AH&VS), whose vision and initiative made the exposure visit possible. During the meeting, the Secretary encouraged the farmers to make the most of the opportunity, learn new technologies, and adopt innovative marketing strategies that could help transform pig farming in the Islands into a robust, industry-level enterprise. The Secretary also extended best wishes for their learning journey and safe return.

The group represents a diverse cross-section of pig-rearing communities across the Islands, including:

- ◆ 1 farmer from Rangat and 8 from Billiground (Middle Andaman)
- ◆ 5 from Diglipur (North Andaman)
- ◆ 1 from Rangachang, 2 from Chouldhari, 1 from Wimberlygunj, and 2 from Swaraj Dweep (South Andaman)
- ◆ 3 from Pulopanja and 2 from Makachua (Nicobar District)

Pig farming is a traditional and vital source of livelihood for many Island communities. This specialized training is designed to boost farmers' confidence and enhance their technical know-how in areas such as breeding, health management, and marketing strategies. The exposure to scientific pig farming practices is expected to significantly contribute to improving productivity and profitability, thereby driving local economic development, a press release from Deptt. of AH&VS said.

In the Union Territory of Andaman and Nicobar Islands, the campaign is being jointly executed by Departmental officials, Krishi Vigyan Kendras (KVKs), and other concerned stakeholders. Enthusiastic participation has been reported from farmers across the Islands, with the campaign activities reaching rural and remote areas as well.

By the 4th day of the campaign (June 2), a significant number of awareness programs like awareness camps, demonstrations, door to door field visit, sports events, evening campaigns at village chaupals have been conducted and a large number of farmers have attended these sessions throughout the Andaman and Nicobar Islands.

In a commendable effort to reach farmers in remote and inaccessible areas, campaign activities are being carried out even in the Nancowrie group of Islands, with officials travelling by boats to ensure no farmer is left behind. Farmers in these remote locations have shown enthusiastic participation in the awareness programmes, reflecting strong community engagement and growing interest in sustainable agricultural practices promoted under the campaign.

Each flagged-off Krishi Rath is traversing through rural and remote areas, conducting a series of outreach activities, including awareness sessions for farmers. The Krishi Raths are well-equipped with informative banners and audio systems that broadcast messages about various Government schemes and best agricultural practices, ensuring effective communication even in the most interior regions. This initiative is playing a crucial role in enhancing farmer awareness and participation under the "Viksit Krishi Sankalp Vihar" campaign.

As part of the Viksit Krishi Sankalp Abhiyan (VKSA), a total of 42 awareness camps were conducted across the Islands, with active participation from 3,239 farmers in various awareness programmes organized under the initiative and in line with the "Ek Ped Maa Ke Naam" initiative, 14 fruit bearing saplings were planted during the Abhiyan.

The programme will continue in various phases across blocks and villages, up to 12th June, 2025 ensuring that every farmer gains access to relevant information and support systems for holistic agricultural development, a press release from Directorate of Agriculture said.
