Government e-Marketplace surges past Rs.4 lakh crore GMV in just 10 months of FY 2024-25

New Delhi, June 12

Under the transformative leadership of Prime Minister, Shri Narendra Modi, who completes 11 years in office, the Government e-Marketplace (GeM) has achieved a remarkable milestone by surpassing a Gross Merchandise Value (GMV) of Rs. 4.09 lakh crore within the first 10 months of Fiscal Year 2024-25. This feat, announced by the Ministry of Commerce & Industry, reflects a nearly 50% growth compared to the same period in the previous fiscal year, cementing GeM's role as a cornerstone of India's digital procurement revolution.

Launched in August 2016, GeM has emerged as a trusted platform for transparent and efficient public procurement, serving over 1.6 lakh

Government entities and 22.5 lakh sellers and service providers. The platform's GMV for FY 2024-25, achieved by January 23, 2025, outpaces last year's historic high of Rs. 4 lakh crore, driven significantly by the services segment, which accounted for Rs. 2.54 lakh crore (62% of total GMV). The product segment contributed Rs. 1.55 lakh crore (38%). The services segment's near-100% growth, fueled by the addition of 19 new service categories, has enabled Government entities to procure specialized services like debit card printing, bulk email services, dark fiber leasing, and data center operations management with enhanced efficiency.

Central Government entities, particularly the Ministries of Coal, Defence, Petroleum & Natural Gas, Power, and Steel, have been pivotal in this surge. The Ministry of Coal led as the top procurer, with a transacted order value of nearly Rs. 1.63 lakh crore, including over 320 high-value bids worth approximately Rs. 42,000 crore for handling and transport services by Coal PSUs. GeM's versatility is evident in its facilitation of both everyday essentials, such as rations and stationery, and high-end, complex items like advanced technology systems and missile components. India's digital economy expected to contribute one-fifth of national income

New Delhi, June 12

As Prime Minister, Shri Narendra Modi marks 11 years in office, India's digital economy is poised to become a cornerstone of national growth, projected to account for nearly one-fifth of the country's income by 2029-30. According to the State of India's Digital Economy Report 2024, India ranks as the third most digitized economy globally and 12th among G20 nations for individual user digitalization, reflecting remarkable progress in digital transformation over the past decade.

The digital economy, contributing 11.74% of India's GDP (Rs. 31.64 lakh crore or USD 402 billion) in 2022-23, is growing nearly twice as fast as the overall economy. Employing 14.67 million workers-2.55% of the workforce-it is almost five times more productive than other sectors. Under PM Modi's leadership, this sector has flourished, driven by digital-enabling industries like ICT services, electronic component manufacturing, and communication equipment, which account for 7.83% of Gross Value Added (GVA). Digital platforms and intermediaries contribute an additional 2% of GVA, while digitalization in traditional sectors such as banking, financial services, insurance (BFSI), retail, and education adds another 2%.

By 2029-30, the digital economy is expected to outpace agriculture and manufacturing, fueled by rapid adoption of Artificial Intelligence (AI), cloud services, and the expansion of global capability centers (GCCs). India hosts 55% of the world's GCCs, which are offshore hubs established by multinational corporations for services like R&D, IT support, and business process management. The growth of digital intermediaries and platforms is anticipated to lead in the short term, with broader digital diffusion across the economy reducing the relative share of ICT industries over time.

Digital transformation is reshaping traditional sectors unevenly. In BFSI, over 95% of banking payment transactions are digital, but revenue-generating activities like loans and investments remain largely offline. Retail is embracing omni-channel models, with e-tailers adding physical stores and leveraging AI chatbots and digital inventory tools for efficiency. Education is adopting hybrid models combining offline and online learning, while hospitality and logistics are integrating AI, metaverse technologies, and digital tools, though smaller firms lag behind larger ones in full digitalization.
