Significant step towards modernizing urban services

Chief Secretary launches PBMC's eNagarsewa Mobile App designed to streamline various Municipal services

Port Blair, Mar. 6

In a significant leap toward urban digitization, the Port Blair Municipal Council has unveiled the eNagarsewa mobile app. The inauguration was presided over by Shri Keshav Chandra, IAS, Chief Secretary, A & N Administration, in the presence of Smti S. Selvi, Chairperson, PBMC, Shri Nikhil Kumar, IAS, Comm-cum-Secretary, UD, Shri A S P S Raviprakash, IAS, Secretary, UD, and Shri Dilkush Meena, IAS, Secretary, PBMC. The event attended by senior officers from the Administration and PBMC, marked the official launch of the app, designed to streamline municipal services.

During the ceremony, Shri Keshav Chandra, IAS, Chief Secretary, A&N Administration, extended a warm welcome to Shri Keshav Chandra, IAS, Chief Secretary, A&N Administration, and provided an insightful overview of the eNagarsewa mobile app's features. He addressed the intricacies citizens often encounter when making payments for municipal taxes.

The eNagarsewa mobile app offers citizens a streamlined platform for various tax payments, covering property tax, water tax, conservancy payments, shop rent and more. The Chief Secretary commended PBMC's commitment to comprehensive development, recognizing the difficulties faced by citizens in customary payment queues. The implementation of the eNagarsewa app is anticipated to alleviate these challenges, ensuring a smooth and efficient payment process for users.

ECI issues strict directives regarding use of children in any election-related activities

Port Blair, Mar. 6

The Election Commission of India has issued strict directives regarding use of children in any election-related activities. Political Parties have been advised not to use children in election campaigns in any form whatsoever including distribution of posters/pamphlets or to participate in slogan shouting, campaign rallies, election meetings, etc. The Commission has conveyed 'Zero Tolerance' towards use of children in any manner during the electoral process by parties and candidates.

The following have been emphasised in the instructions:

◆ Prohibition of Child Participation in election related activities: Political parties are explicitly directed not to engage children in any form of election campaign, including rallies, slogan shouting, distribution of posters or pamphlets, or any other election-related activity. Political leaders and candidates should not use children for campaign activities in any manner including holding a child in their arms, carrying a child in a vehicle or in rallies.

◆ This prohibition extends to the use of children to create the semblance of a political campaign in any manner including use through poem, songs, spoken words, display of insignia of political party/candidate, exhibiting ideology of political party, promoting achievements of a political party or criticizing the opponent political parties/candidates. (Contd. from page 1)

However, the mere presence of a child accompanied by their parent or guardian in proximity of a political leader and who is not involved in any election campaigning activity by the political party, will not be construed as a violation of the guidelines.

♦ Legal Compliance: All political parties and candidates are required to ensure strict compliance with the Child Labour (Prohibition and Regulation) Act, 1986, as amended by the Child Labour (Prohibition and Regulation) Amendment Act, 2016. The Commission directives also highlighted the Hon'ble Bombay High Court in its Order dated 4th August, 2014 in PIL No. 127 of 2012 (Chetan Ramlal Bhutada Vs. State of Maharashtra and others) which had stressed the need to ensure that political parties do not allow participation of minor children in any election related activities.

The Chief Electoral Officer, Andaman & Nicobar Islands, Shri B S Jaglan, IAS has requested all political parties and candidates to strictly comply with above directives and not to use children in election campaigns in any form, a press release from CEO, A&N Islands said.

deletion in Electoral Rolls through online mode were found alive and residing in the same part.

On the basis of the complaint, a preliminary enquiry was conducted and during the enquiry, statements of BLO's were recorded and Form-7 submitted online was obtained. Form-7 is application form for objections for proposed inclusion/deletion of name in existing electoral roll.

It is clearly mentioned in Form -7 that any false statement made in the Declaration portion is a punishable offence under Section 31 of the Representation of People Act, 1950. Further, applicant need to provide his own details as per rules 13(2) of the Registration of Electors Rules-1960 while raising objection to the inclusion of a name in the Electoral Roll.

Thus, preliminary enquiry based on information provided in Form-7 & BLOs door to door survey revealed that false information was furnished in Form-7 by impersonation. Hence, an FIR No 40/24, dated 04/02/24, U/s 419 IPC, r.w.s 31 of Representation of People Act, 1950 has been registered at PS Aberdeen against users of mobile numbers provided by AERO in his complaint and is being investigated.

Meanwhile, the general public have been informed that Police will take strict action against Electoral Offences. All have been requested to share information pertaining to any Electoral Offence/ Illegal activities to Police at 112, 03192-232100, 03192-236641 and 03192-232400.
