Primary objective of MCC is to ensure campaigns, polling, and counting process during elections are held in an orderly, transparent, and peaceful manner: CEO

Port Blair, Mar. 21

The Chief Electoral Officer, Andaman and Nicobar Islands, Shri B. S Jaglan, IAS, today held a meeting with Officers of the A & N Administration on the basic aspects of Model Code of Conduct in the Conference Hall of Secretariat. The meeting was attended by Shri Arjun Sharma, IAS, Returning Officer, A & N Islands Parliamentary Constituency and other senior Officers of the Administration. The Nodal Officer, (Model Code of Conduct), Shri Vinayak Chamadia, IAS, made a presentation and briefed about the Do's and Don'ts during the enforcement of the MCC and its effective implementation and vigilant monitoring measures expected by the Government agencies. The Chief Electoral Officer briefed that the primary objective of the MCC is to ensure that campaigns, polling, and counting process during elections are held in an orderly, transparent, and peaceful manner. Additionally, it serves as a mechanism to curb any misuse of state machinery and financial resources by the ruling party. The utilization of official machinery or personnel for electioneering, issuance of advertisements at the cost of the public exchequer in newspapers and other media during the election period are strictly prohibited. The misuse of official mass media for partisan coverage of political news and publicity regarding achievements to favor the ruling party should be strictly avoided, as noted in the MCC guidelines, a press release from DC (SA) said.

General Elections-2024 :Model Conduct of Conduct ECI issues instructions to regulate road shows to avoid any inconvenience to general public/commuters

Port Blair, Mar. 21

With the announcement of General Elections-2024 by the Election Commission of India on 16/03/2024, the Model Code of Conduct has come into force with immediate effect.

In this regard, the Election Commission of India has issued the following instructions to regulate road shows to avoid any inconvenience to the general public/commuters during road shows which is detailed as under :-

- Prior permission for road shows shall be taken from the Competent Authority.
- In order to avoid inconvenience to general public, as far as possible, road shows, subject to court orders and local laws, should be permitted only on holidays and during no-peak hours on routes other than that having big hospitals, trauma centers, blood banks and heavily crowded markets.
- Number of vehicles and persons joining for road show shall be intimated in advance.
- The road show shall not cover more than half the road width to ensure safety of the general public.
- The convoy of vehicles being used in road show shall be broken after every 10 vehicles and a gap of 100 meters would be maintained.
- Safety of public and persons in the road show shall be ensured. Bursting of fire crackers and carrying of fire arms shall not be permitted at all.
- The maximum size of banner to be carried with hand would be 6x4 feet.

- Loudspeakers can be used as per existing ECI's instruction and subject to local Laws and Court orders on this subject.
- Display of animals in road shows is totally banned. Children, particularly school children in uniform, should not take part in road shows.
- Only one flag of the size 1 ft x ½ft with permission of the RO concerned would be allowed on campaign vehicles in a road show.

The above mentioned instructions have to be adhered to by the respective Political Parties/Candidates to avoid any inconvenience to the general public, a press release from District Election Officer (SA) said.

Awareness program on Child Rights and Responsibilities organized by SCPS

Port Blair, Mar. 21

The State Child Protection Society (SCPS) under the Directorate of Social Welfare, organized Child Rights and Responsibilities Awareness Program on March 19, 2024 in collaboration with Calvary Children's Home. The program was aimed at creating awareness in child about their rights and responsibilities. This effort saw active participation from children, emphasizing their keen interest in understanding and advocating for their rights.

Dr. Nitin Shakya, Director of Social Welfare, emphasized the significance of such programs in enhancing awareness among children. He underscored the importance of conducting similar initiatives across all Child Care Institutions (CCIs) to ensure children are well-informed and empower to upload their rights and responsibilities.

Facilitated by SCPS, Program Manager, Ms Rehaneth Begum, children engaged in discussions regarding their rights and responsibilities. Key topics included the right to participation, equality, education, and hygiene. Through active participation, children demonstrated their understanding of these fundamental principles and their corresponding responsibilities. Furthermore, discussions were centered around the importance of cleanliness and hygiene in maintaining the environment.

The event also featured an engaging quiz competition, allowing children to showcase their knowledge and understanding child rights and responsibilities. Winners of the competition were Master K. Jay Kumar (IX-B), Rahul Pradhan (IX-B) and Rajesh Indwar (XI-B-I). Additionally, all participating children were awarded drawing kits as a token of appreciation for their enthusiastic involvement in the program, a press release from Director (Social Welfare) said.

Training prog. on 'First Aid Fire Fighting & Disaster Preparedness' concludes with certificate distribution

Port Blair, Mar.21

A three days training programme on 'First Aid Fire Fighting & Disaster Preparedness' concluded successfully at the Fire Service Training Centre, Fire & Emergency Service (HQ) today. Altogether 152 individuals actively participated in the training sessions. The programme was aimed at sensitizing about fire safety and disaster preparedness measures.

Shri. Manjeet Sheoran, IPS Superintendent of Police (Fire and Emergency Services), emphasized the importance of fire safety awareness among participants. He urged them to disseminate the knowledge acquired during the training programme and to take proactive fire safety precautions. Additionally, participants were encouraged to cooperate with fire service personnel during emergency incidents and support firefighters in their endeavors.

Throughout the training sessions, participants were acquainted with various activities of the Andaman & Nicobar Fire and Emergency Services, including the functions of the Fire Control Room and operational techniques of essential equipment such as Water Tender, Rescue Tender, and Disaster Management tools like Search & Rescue equipment, Chain Saw, Concrete Cutter, Air Lifting Bag and Combi Tools.

A live demonstration on firefighting utilizing various fire extinguishers and the operation of the branch display and delivery hose was conducted on the concluding day at the Fire & Emergency Service (HQ). Participants actively engaged in these demonstrations, gaining practical insights into fire safety measures.

At the valediction program, course certificates were distributed to all participants, acknowledging their successful completion of the training programme, a press release from SP (Fire) said.
