

Expedition 'Paramvir'

Team ANC embarks on historic swimming expedition to 21 Islands named after PVC Awardees

Port Blair, May 3

The Indian Armed Forces, known for their tradition of fostering adventure, have embarked on a historic swimming expedition in the Andaman and Nicobar Islands. This daring endeavour, which involves swimming to all 21 Islands named after Param Vir Chakra (PVC) awardees, was initiated to pay tribute to the bravehearts, who have made supreme sacrifices for the nation.

The event was flagged off by Air Marshal Saju Balakrishnan, AVSM, VM, Commander-in-Chief, Andaman and Nicobar Command (CINCAN), on March 22, 2024, commemorating World Water Day.

A total of 58 swimmers from the Andaman and Nicobar Command (ANC) participated in the inaugural swim from Marina Jetty to Netaji Subhas Chandra Bose Dweep.

The first phase of the swim, undertaken in the Middle Andaman region, commenced in the month of April. Swim to eleven Islands has been successfully carried out so far. These are, Ekka

Dweep, Khetarpal Dweep, Pandey Dweep, Hoshiar Dweep, Bana Dweep, Karam Dweep, Singh Dweep, Shaitan

Dweep, Yogendra Dweep, Jadunath Dweep, Sekhon Dweep, Piru Dweep. This expedition stands as a testament to the indomitable spirit of the Indian Armed Forces. It is a unique tribute to the Param Vir Chakra awardees, showcasing their valour and sacrifice.

The swimming expedition, spanning from March 22 to August 15, 2024, has been meticulously planned considering adverse weather conditions and logistical arrangements. It marks a historic milestone in honouring the bravery of our armed forces personnel, a press release from ANC said.

Minimizing noise disturbance & traffic congestion during wedding ceremonies and processions

A&N Traffic Police holds meeting with light and sound dealers

Port Blair, May 3

In a concerted effort to address the pressing issue of noise pollution & traffic congestion arising due to upcoming marriage season, a meeting was convened today with leading light and sound dealers under the chairmanship of Shri Ajay Kumar Rai, Deputy Superintendent of Police (DySP) Traffic. The meeting was attended by the Station House Officer of PS Aberdeen and the session aimed to foster collaboration and outline crucial guidelines to minimize noise disturbance & traffic congestion during wedding ceremonies and processions. Recognizing the adverse effects of excessive noise on public health and community wellbeing, attendees deliberated on practical measures to curtail noise levels while ensuring the smooth conduct of marriage functions.
