

Capacity Building Training Prog. for PSTs gets underway

Sri Vijaya Puram, May 19
The first phase of the Capacity Building Training Programme for Primary School Teachers working under the Department of Education commenced today at three different venues viz. DIET Garacharma, GSSS Mohanpura, and GMSSS Aberdeen, where a total of 294 participants are attending the programme.

This initiative aims to enhance the skills and knowledge of Primary School Teachers, ensuring alignment with the National Education Policy (NEP) 2020, which emphasizes early childhood education and teacher development. By strengthening foundational teaching strategies, the programme seeks to empower educators with modern pedagogical approaches, fostering a more engaging and effective learning environment for young students.

DIET Garacharma, in collaboration with the State Institute of Education, Sri Vijaya Puram, is leading this Capacity Building programme. The Department of Education has planned the training in six phases, covering approximately 1,466 Primary School Teachers during summer vacation period, ensuring comprehensive participation and maximum impact.

By equipping teachers with advanced methodologies, the programme aspires to elevate the standard of primary education, creating a more enriched learning experience for children. This initiative highlights the commitment towards continuous teacher development, which is pivotal in shaping the future of education, a press release from DIET said.

Earthquake & Fire Mock Drill conducted at Zonal Agriculture Office, Goalghar

Sri Vijaya Puram, May 19
As per the directive of the Chief Secretary mandating quarterly mock drills across all Departments of A&N

Administration, the Directorate of Disaster Management, A&N Administration organized an Earthquake and Fire Mock Drill at the Office of the Assistant Director (Agri), Zonal Agriculture Office, Department of Agriculture, Goalghar South Andaman, Sri Vijaya Puram today. The exercise was conducted in coordination with the District Administration, Health, Transport and Fire Departments to evaluate the Department's preparedness for emergency situations. The drill commenced with a simulated earthquake and fire scenario, following which, the Agriculture Department teams carried out safe evacuation, search and rescue operations and provided first aid to the injured. The communication team promptly alerted the State Emergency Operation Center (SEOC-1070), District Emergency Operation Center (DEOC-S/A-1077), Emergency Response Support System (ERSS-112), and other line Departments, including Fire and Health for necessary assistance. Fire tenders and ambulances arrived swiftly to manage the situation and provide medical aid. Later, a debriefing session was held to review observations and identify gaps for improvement. Officials from Disaster Management, Fire and Health Departments emphasized the need for basic disaster management training for all Agriculture Department teams and staff to enhance their response capabilities in emergencies, a press release from Directorate of Disaster Management said.

Jan Sunvai organized at Kishori Nagar, Diglipur

Mayabunder, May 19

A Jan Sunvai was held at Kishori Nagar Panchayat Hall on May 17, where Ms. Shweta K Sugathan, IPS, Superintendent of Police (District), N & M Andaman, and Shri Ankesh Yadav, Sub-Divisional Police Officer, Diglipur along with SI Ashok Kumar Baghel, SHO, PS Kalighat interacted with the local residents and addressed various public grievances.

During the event, the officers patiently heard the concerns raised by the citizens and assured them of appropriate and timely action. The initiative aimed to strengthen police-public relations and ensure that community concerns are addressed in a transparent and responsive manner. By engaging directly with the community, the Police aimed to create a more responsive and inclusive system where citizens feel heard, valued, and actively involved in the maintenance of law and order.

In addition to grievance redressal, a dedicated awareness session on Drug Abuse and Cyber Crimes was conducted to educate and empower the community, especially the youth and parents.

The N&MA District Police emphasized its commitment to maintaining a safe and drug-free environment and sought the continued cooperation of the public in this endeavor, a press release from SP, N&MA said.
