Hon'ble Minister of State inaugurates Pradhan Mantri Divyasha Kendra at CRC, A&N Islands Govt. is committed to making Persons with Disabilities more capable and self-reliant: Minister

Sri Vijaya Puram, May 28

The Hon'ble Minister of State for Consumer Affairs, Food & Public Distribution and Social Justice & Empowerment, GoI, Shri B. L. Verma, today inaugurated the Pradhan Mantri Divyasha Kendra (PMDK) initiated by Artificial Limbs Manufacturing Corporation of India, Public Sector undertaking by DEPwD, MSJ&E at CRC, Brookshabad and distributed assistive equipment to differently abled individuals. Pradhan Mantri Divyasha Kendra (PMDK) are Centers established to provide assistive devices and services to Persons with Disabilities (Divyangjan) and senior citizens. These Centers aim to improve the outreach of the Assistance to Persons with Disabilities (ADIP) and Rashtriya Vayoshree Yojana (RVY) schemes by making aids and assistive devices readily available. The Hon'ble Member of Parliament, A&N Islands, Shri Bishnu Pada Ray, the Secretary Social Welfare, Shri L. Kumar, IAS, the Deputy Commissioner, South Andaman, Shri Arjun Sharma, IAS, officials from ALIMCO and parents of Divyangjans were present on the occasion.

In his address, the Hon'ble Minister said, the launch of Pradhan Mantri Divyasha Kendra in A&N Islands will greatly support people with disabilities. The Minister emphasized that, under Prime Minister, Shri Narendra Modi's leadership, the Government is committed to making Persons with Disabilities more capable and self-reliant. They no longer need to depend on others. "These assistive devices will ease their mobility and improve their quality of life", the Minister said.

Recognizing the significance of respect and empowerment, the Prime Minister replaced the term "handicapped" with "Divyang", the Minister said. The Government has introduced various initiatives for the educational, social, and economic development of disabled individuals, the Minister said. He further informed that, so far, 70 Centers have been opened all over the Country and the inauguration of the new Centre in Sri Vijaya Puram is the 71st. He said, more than 300 Pradhan Mantri Divyasha Kendras will be opened for the benefit of the Divyangjan. He also thanked the officials of the ALIMCO for fulfilling the vision of the Prime Minister in uplifting the life of Divyangjans and providing assistive equipment to 31 lakh Divyanjans.

In his address, the Hon'ble Member of Parliament, A&N Islands, as guest of honour, thanked the Minister for inaugurating this Centre, which, he said, will be a great help for the Divyangjans of A&N Islands. He further urged for providing all other required facilities for the divyangjans visiting CRC Brookshabad.

Preparatory meeting on readiness for launch of National Level Pre-Kharif Campaign - Viksit Krishi Sankalp Abhiyan held

Sri Vijaya Puram, May 28

A preparatory meeting of Viksit Krishi Sankalp Abhiyan (VKSA) was held under the Chairmanship of the Chief Secretary, A&N Administration, Dr. Chandra Bhushan Kumar, IAS, today in the Conference Hall of Secretariat, Sri Vijaya Puram which was attended by Officers from Agriculture Department, Allied Departments and ICAR-CIARI.

During the meeting, the Chief Secretary emphasized that the VKSA campaign must clearly communicate the various schemes and facilities available to farmers. It should provide specific details of benefits accessible under ongoing schemes.

On the World Environment Day in line with the "Ek Ped Maa Ke Naam" initiative, all Self-Help Groups (SHGs), Kisan Camps, Government Offices, Schools, and Anganwadi Centres (AWCs) are to take part in large-scale fruit tree plantation drives during the VKSA campaign. Necessary fruit planting materials may be obtained from Forest Department. The Chief Secretary directed that PRI members must take a leading role in all VKSA events. A standardized reporting format, Gram Panchayat-wise, should be developed. This must include the signature of the GP Secretary for authenticity and accountability. Structured feedback from PRI members, farmers, and other stakeholders must be systematically collected. Testimonials and suggestions received will be used for mid-course corrections and continuous improvement of the campaign. Documentation is to be treated as an essential component of the VKSA. All Departments must ensure thorough record-keeping, capturing best practices, challenges, and innovative approaches adopted during the Abhiyan. District-level officers from all relevant Departments are encouraged to visit VKSA camps to offer support, encourage participation, and provide real-time feedback. Deputy Commissioners (DCs) and Assistant Commissioners (ACs) must conduct periodic visits to the VKSA events in their respective jurisdictions and daily report of the events may be submitted by DCs/ACs. Separate press releases from each District Administration should be issued periodically to highlight VKSA activities, success stories, and local initiatives. A review on ongoing activities on VKSA will be taken by the Chief Secretary, A&N Administration on 3rd June, 2025.

The National Level Pre-Kharif campaign titled 'Viksit Krishi Sankalp Abhiyan' will be launched on 29th May, 2025, across all Zones in Andaman and Nicobar Islands. At South Andaman Zone, the programme will be inaugurated with a flag-off of Rath- Viksit Krishi Sankalp Abhiyan ceremony by the Hon'ble Member of Parliament, Shri Bishnu Pada Ray at Chouldari village in South Andaman District, a press release from Directorate of Agriculture said.

Union Public Service Commission introduces new online application portal

New Delhi, May 28 (PIB)

The Union Public Service Commission is introducing a new Online Application Portal for registration and filling up of application form online. The UPSC Online Application Portal has four parts, arranged in 4 separate cards at the home page, three of which namely, Account Creation, Universal Registration and Common Application Form contains information which are common to all examinations and can be filled anytime by the candidates. The fourth part i.e. Examination contains examination notices, Examination Application and applications status. Only examination specific information is to be filled up in this part by candidates during the time period allowed in the notification of an examination.

This arrangement will facilitate candidates to fill up first three parts anytime and keep ready for applying to any UPSC examination whenever notified with updates as may be required, thereby saving time and avoiding last minute rush. All applicants are required to fill up the application and upload their documents in the newly introduced portal afresh by using the website <https://>

Chief Secretary launches book titled 'The Story of Cellular Jail Prison to Pilgrimage' authored by Dr. Rashida Iqbal at Andaman Club

Sri Vijaya Puram, May 28

The Chief Secretary, A & N Administration, Dr. Chandra Bhushan Kumar, IAS, today launched a Book titled 'The Story of Cellular Jail Prison to Pilgrimage', authored by Dr. Rashida Iqbal, former Assistant Director (Art & Culture) at a ceremony organized at the historic Andaman Club here today. The ceremony was also attended by the Secretary (Art & Culture), Ms. Jyoti Kumari, IAS, Director (Art & Culture), Ms. Priyanka Kumari, prominent historians from the Islands, stakeholders from the tourism sector, well-wishers, family members of the author and general public.

Speaking on the occasion, the Chief Secretary expressed happiness in being part of today's book launch, which he described as a "momentous event that marks a significant contribution to our understanding of history". The launch of this book, authored by Dr. Rashida Iqbal, is not just a literary milestone but a historic moment, the Chief Secretary remarked. Through its pages, we gain a clearer, deeper and more accurate understanding of our past. This work shines a light on a chapter of Indian history that is both painful and inspiring, offering a vivid account of the Andaman Penal Settlement and the famous Cellular Jail, he stated.

Highlighting the writings from the book, the Chief Secretary said, this book takes readers on an emotional journey through the lives of our brave freedom fighters, who endured unimaginable suffering within the harsh confines of the Jail. He further stated that Andaman and Nicobar Islands offer immense opportunities for writers, researchers and storytellers. From tribal traditions to tales of freedom fighters, these Islands are rich with stories that deserve to be told, said the Chief Secretary.

The Chief Secretary also informed that the National Memorial Cellular Jail and Narcondam Island are currently on UNESCO's World Heritage Sites tentative list, and work is ongoing to ensure its inclusion in the final list. The Administration has also proposed four more additional sites from these Islands for World Heritage recognition, each representing a unique aspect of the Islands' heritage, the Chief Secretary informed.

Remarking that it is equally important to create awareness among the younger generation, the Chief Secretary said, they must know the stories, values and sacrifices that shaped our nation. He also highlighted one such initiative i.e. the Kissa Goi program in Delhi, a storytelling event where people gather to share stories about places, history and culture. A similar program could be introduced here during the tourist season, where people of all ages come together to hear the rich stories of these Islands, the Chief Secretary suggested. He also asked the Department of Art and Culture to work out modalities to conduct writing workshops to help aspiring writers learn the craft and navigate the path to publication.

Speaking on the occasion, Dr. Rashida Iqbal, author shared insights into her book titled The Story of Cellular Jail Prison to Pilgrimage. She described the work as an in-depth study of the Andaman and Nicobar Islands, the Andaman Penal Settlement, and the iconic Cellular Jail. She called the book her humble tribute to the "Temple of Freedom", a place where she served with dedication from 1996 to 2024.

She expressed hope that her book would take readers on an emotional journey through the lives of the freedom fighters who endured unimaginable suffering within the jail's walls. She dedicated the book to the loving memory of her parents, describing the work as a deeply personal and emotional tribute. Witnessing the transformation of the Cellular Jail from a place of suffering to a site of national reverence, she expressed her gratitude to the A&N Administration for the opportunity to serve there, an experience that allowed her to study the Cellular Jail's history with depth and authenticity.
