India International Trade Fair 2025 commences with grandeur at Bharat Mandapam, Pragati Maidan, New Delhi

Hon'ble Lt. Governor inaugurates Andaman & Nicobar Pavilion at IITF

Pavilion showcases Islands unique blend of cultural diversity and economic opportunities

Sri Vijaya Puram, Nov. 15

The 44th India International Trade Fair (IITF) commenced yesterday at Bharat Mandapam, Pragati Maidan, New Delhi. This year's edition will run from November 14 to 27, highlighting the theme "Ek Bharat: Shreshtha Bharat", celebrating India's unity, diversity, and national progress. The event is being participated by various States and Union Territories including Andaman & Nicobar Islands.

The Andaman & Nicobar Islands, a jewel in India's maritime landscape, have also joined the event in a big way and erected its pavilion in the Fair. The Pavilion depicts and showcases the archipelago and its unique blend of cultural diversity, eco-tourism, and economic opportunities. In line with other States/UTs, the Andaman & Nicobar Pavilion at International Trade Fair (IITF) 2025 was inaugurated today by Admiral D.K. Joshi, PVSM, AVSM, YSM, NM, VSM (Retd.), Hon'ble Lieutenant Governor, A&N Islands & Vice Chairman, Islands Development Agency in the presence of Commissioner-cum-Secretary (Tourism), Ms. Chanchal Yadav, IAS and other officers of A&N Administration. The Andaman & Nicobar pavilion, adorned with traditional art and exhibits, is drawing attention to the islands' rich cultural heritage, biodiversity, and investment potential.

The Immersive Reality Zone emerged as a major attraction, offering a unique, one-of-its-kind interactive experience. Through advanced virtual simulation, visitors were able to embark on a captivating tour of the Andaman & Nicobar Islands, exploring popular destinations, underwater adventures like scuba diving, and the region's vibrant marine and ecological diversity. The zone provided an engaging glimpse into the natural beauty and adventure tourism potential of the Islands. Adding to the vibrancy of the event, the Dweep Sugandh stall set up by the Agriculture Department displayed an impressive range of GI-tagged and organic products native to the Isles, highlighting the region's agricultural identity and traditional cultivation practices. The Industries Department showcased the craftsmanship of the Islands through elegant Padauk woodcrafts, known for their fine quality and artistic appeal.

The Fisheries and Rural Development Departments further contributed by creating market opportunities for Self Help Groups (SHGs), enabling them to showcase their rich and diverse basket of homemade and locally produced items. This initiative not only promoted local entrepreneurship but also supported the economic empowerment of SHG members, strengthening the rural economy of the Islands.

ST community. At the venue, stalls were set up for Aadhaar registration and health screening by the Civil Supplies and Health Departments. In addition, stalls by the Departments of Social Welfare, NABARD, Lead Bank, Agriculture, Ayush, and Fisheries were also installed to disseminate information about various flagship schemes of the Government of India and the UT Administration implemented for the welfare and well-being of the tribal communities of the Andaman and Nicobar Islands. The presence of the tribes of the A&N Islands, particularly the Onge, Nicobarese and Andamanese communities who are an invaluable part of our cultural heritage made this event not just a formal one, but a living celebration of our diversity, our heritage and our collective unity. Before the live screening of the Hon'ble Prime Minister's Speech, the Member of Parliament and the Chief Secretary gave away the Ayushman Cards to the Great Andamanese beneficiaries, marking an important step towards health security, dignity and opportunities for the tribal community to move forward. Both the dignitaries felicitated 13 Onge PVTG students who have passed Class 10 this year. It was not just an award for the students, but an inspiration for the entire community and a message of hope for the future generations. The Director, Tribal welfare proposed the vote of thanks.

The event at DBRAIT concluded with the presentation of National Anthem sung by the students from Onge, Nicobarese and Andamanese communities, which was appreciated by one and all present in the auditorium.

Nicobar District. The operation was set in motion after a specific intelligence input indicated the presence of foreign poachers who had escaped into the jungles of Tillang Chaung. Acting swiftly on this information, ANP teams moved into the remote island region, and during intensive search efforts on 15.11.2025, six foreign poachers were successfully apprehended. The Police and Army detachments led the ground action, while the Navy, Air Force, and Coast Guard extended strong operational support, ensuring smooth coordination and comprehensive coverage of the area. The search operation continues with full momentum as teams remain deployed in the field. The Andaman & Nicobar Police reaffirm our commitment to protecting the fragile island environment, safeguarding India's maritime boundaries, and continue to work tirelessly to ensure the safety & security of the islands and its people, a press release from Commandant, India Reserve Battalion said.

Management Board, Andaman Lakshadweep Harbour Works and Andaman Public Works Department, it is hereby conveyed for the information of the general public that the movement of all categories of vehicles are hereby permitted up to the landward-side hard embankment surface area of the New Vehicle Ferry Jetty at Chatham. This restriction has been imposed to ensure structural safety, prevent undue load on vulnerable sections of the bridge and adjoining infrastructure and facilitate the smooth and secure operation of vehicular and ferry-related activities in the area. All concerned departments, enforcement agencies and transport operators are directed to maintain strict adherence to these instructions. Any deviation or non-compliance will be viewed seriously, as the measures are essential for safeguarding public safety and ensuring uninterrupted traffic management, an order to this effect issued by Shri Arjun Sharma, District Magistrate, South Andaman said.

Saras Mela currently underway at ITF Ground, drew large crowd on day 2

Sri Vijaya Puram, Nov. 15

Saras Mela currently underway at the ITF Ground, drew large crowds for its second day with series of cultural activities and vibrant commerce. T h e main stage captivated visitors with a rich tapestry of cultural performances. Today's highlights included a powerful tribal dance by the Self-Help Group (SHG) from Nancowry, a traditional Nicobari folk dance and song, a graceful performance by the Karen community, and a soulful bhajan, "Devaram Thiruvasakam," by the Kurundham NGO's Manivasagar Thapavan group.

Musical entertainment kept the energy high, with engaging performances by the Melody Troupe and Unity Orchestra. Meanwhile, commerce flourished at the stalls. Exhibits from Ladakh and Tamil Nadu SHGs proved to be major attractions, witnessing significant sales as visitors eagerly purchased unique crafts and products. The Ladakh stalls alone reported sales of Rs. 12,000(approx). It was also reported that the overall sales for the mela on the first day closed at Rs. 161401 lakhs, setting a strong precedent for the event, a press release from RD Department said.

Awareness session on 'Special Intensive Revision (SIR) & Electoral Process' organized by Electoral Literacy Club DIET, Garacharma

Sri Vijaya Puram, Nov. 15

An awareness session on 'Special Intensive Revision (SIR) and the Electoral Process' today, was organized by the Electoral Literacy Club (ELC) of the District Institute of Education & Training (DIET), Garacharma in its auditorium today. The programme aimed to enhance the understanding of student-teachers about the importance of the electoral process and the ongoing 'Special Intensive Revision' activities undertaken by the Election Commission of India.

Dr. Balakrishnan, Nodal Officer (SVEEP), highlighted that the Systematic Voters' Education and Electoral Participation (SVEEP) programme is the flagship initiative of the Election Commission of India for voter awareness and promoting voter literacy across the nation. He encouraged DIET trainees to enroll themselves as voters by submitting Form-6, enabling them to exercise their franchise and contribute to building a strong and vibrant democracy. Further, the resource persons, Shri Raja Ram and Shri Senthil, State Level Master Trainers, enlightened the participants about voter eligibility criteria and provided a detailed explanation of the enumeration process. They demonstrated the correct procedure for filling the enumeration form and clarified various queries related to voter ID correction, inclusion, and deletion processes. They also suggested that DIET trainees may be appointed as volunteers to assist the Booth Level Officers (BLOs) in filling the enumeration forms, thereby contributing to the smooth conduct of the SIR activities. They urged the trainees to disseminate this information among their friends, colleagues, relatives, and neighbors to ensure that no eligible voter is left out and no ineligible person is included in the Electoral Roll. The senior most faculty, DIET Garacharma, Dr. Saraswati Devi, along with Smt. G. R. Rajji, Nodal Officer (ELC), encouraged student-teachers to stay informed and engage actively in democratic practices.
