Union Health Minister launches new initiatives on World Mental Health Day

Launches enhanced Tele MANAS App featuring Multi-lingual UI for enhanced accessibility

Ms. Deepika Padukone designated as the Mental Health Ambassador for raising awareness about access to mental health services

New Delhi, Oct. 10 (PIB)

On the occasion of the World Mental Health Day 2025, Union Minister of Health and Family Welfare, Shri Jagat Prakash Nadda launched several new initiatives for the National Tele Mental Health Programme (Tele MANAS), here today. The new initiatives include launch of Tele MANAS App Enhancements (Multi-lingual UI, Chatbot, Accessibility, Emergency Module). Tele MANAS App will now be available in 10 regional languages, in addition to the English and Hindi languages. These languages include Assamese, Bengali, Gujarati, Kannada, Malayalam, Marathi, Tamil, Telugu, Odia, Punjabi. This step is towards providing mental health support in regional languages for enhancing accessibility. In addition, recognizing that persons with disabilities and vulnerable groups face barriers in accessing digital health services, the app now includes accessibility features to make the interface more user-friendly for visually impaired users. A chatbot feature ('Asmi') has also been introduced, allowing users to engage with the app and seek information or help regarding mental health. Furthermore, emergency response content has been incorporated to ensure timely guidance and support during emergencies.

Speaking on the occasion, Shri Nadda remarked that "a sound mind leads to a sound body and a healthy mind and a healthy body lead to a healthy nation." He said, "India is committed to ensuring equitable, affordable, and inclusive access to mental health services. With the launch of the new features in the Tele-MANAS app, we are strengthening our preparedness to respond effectively to mental health emergencies and expanding the reach of digital innovations to every corner of the country. Moving a step closer towards normalizing discussions around mental health is crucial to reducing stigma and highlighting mental health as an integral aspect of public health in India."

Shri Nadda also stated that Ms. Deepika Padukone has been designated as the Mental Health Ambassador for raising awareness about access to mental health services. He said that her involvement as a national advocate will help focus attention on mental health and encourage people to seek timely support through government-approved mental health resources. "The partnership with Ms. Deepika Padukone will help widely disseminate awareness about mental health issues in India, normalize discussions to reduce stigma, and highlight mental health as an integral aspect of public health", he stated.

Tourism Department to organize Public Lecture on Sustainable Tourism

Sri Vijaya Puram, Oct. 10

As part of its ongoing Lecture Series on Sustainable Tourism, the Directorate of Tourism will be organizing a Public Lecture on the topic 'The Island Way of Tourism' by Ms. Diksha Dikshit, noted Marine Biologist and Naturalist, on Oct. 13, 2025 at 11 AM in the Conference Hall of the Directorate of Disaster Management.

The lecture aims to promote awareness and understanding of sustainable tourism practices suited to the fragile island ecosystem and marine biodiversity of the A&N Islands. Ms. Dikshit will share her insights on community participation, responsible tourism, and conservation-oriented approaches that define the "Island way" of harmonizing tourism with nature.

General public, students, tourists, scuba diving operators, and nature lovers have been invited to attend the session and participate in this interactive discussion on sustainability and island ecology.

This initiative is part of the Department's broader effort to encourage responsible tourism practices and position the A&N Islands as a model for sustainable and nature-based tourism, a press release from Tourism Department said.
