Chief Secretary flags off the Special Cruise from Haddo Wharf Passengers share excitement ahead of journey to India's only active volcano

Staff Correspondent

Sri Vijaya Puram, Oct. 24

In a significant boost to adventure and ecotourism, the Chief Secretary, A&N Administration, Dr. Chandra Bhushan Kumar, IAS, flagged off the passenger vessel Sindhu from Haddo Wharf for its special cruise to Barren Island, the only active volcano in India at around 8.50 pm tonight. Senior officers of the Administration were present at the brief but spirited ceremony.

The vessel, with a full capacity of 439 passengers including 125 Govt. School students drawn from different parts of the Islands, boarded the vessel for the much-awaited journey. Even before embarkation began, the atmosphere at Haddo Wharf was filled with excitement and enthusiasm. Families and adventure seekers with cameras in hand were eager to be part of this memorable voyage.

Speaking on the sidelines of the flag-off ceremony, the Chief Secretary expressed his delight that, with meticulous planning, the A&N Administration has been able to launch the cruise to Barren Island, India's only active volcano. He said, passengers onboard the vessel will have a which would certainly boost local tourism. fascinating and mesmerizing experience witnessing this natural phenomenon.

Highlighting the educational aspect, he said that The Chief Secretary added that there will be two been given the opportunity to visit Barren Island trips to Barren Island every month, providing free of cost. He expressed hope that such trips will tourists an opportunity to explore another contribute to the students' overall development attraction during their stay in the A&N Islands, and help them become responsible citizens of the opportunity.

The Chief Secretary also emphasized the 125 students from different Govt. Schools have immense potential for cruise tourism in the A&N Islands and noted that the Administration has initiated several measures to encourage private

The exclusive voyage, organized by the Directorate of Shipping Services (DSS) under the aegis of the A&N Administration, aims to offer islanders and tourists a once-in-a-lifetime experience to witness one of nature's most spectacular phenomena amid the scenic waters of the Andaman Sea.

Shri Shitanshu, a tourist from Uttar Pradesh, said, "he is thrilled to join the Barren Island cruise. Having only read about India's lone active volcano in books, he expressed excitement at the chance to witness it firsthand". He added that it was a fortunate coincidence to learn about the special trip during his family vacation to the Islands and immediately booked tickets to seize the rare opportunity.

Shri Thangaraj, a resident of Middle Point, shared that though he had often heard about volcanic eruptions at Barren Island, this is his first chance to witness it in person. Excited for the experience, he said, "his family of six is eagerly looking forward to

Ms. Jiva Tirkey, a student of PM SHRI GSSS Rangat, said, "while she had long known about the Barren Volcano, she is thrilled to finally get the rare opportunity to witness the phenomenon in person".

With adventure, leisure, and learning seamlessly woven together, the Barren Island cruise marks another milestone in the Andaman & Nicobar Administration's commitment to showcasing the entrepreneurs to take advantage of this Islands as a world-class, eco-friendly tourism
