Sardar Vallabhbhai Patel's 150th Birth Anniversary to be celebrated in A&N Islands

'Run for Unity' to be organized by A&N Administration today at 6 am from Netaji Stadium

Sri Vijaya Puram, Oct. 30

The Government of India will celebrate the 150th Birth Anniversary of Sardar Vallabhbhai Patel through an elaborate, year-long series of activities under the banner "Sardar@150", honouring the Iron Man of India's unmatched contribution to the nation's unity and integrity. The initiative, spearheaded by the Ministry of Culture, aims to revive the values of national integration, good governance, and public service that Sardar Patel embodied. Various activities such as exhibitions, essay and debate competitions, heritage walks, lectures, patriotic runs, and cultural programmes are being organized to highlight Sardar Patel's pivotal role in integrating over 560 princely States into the Indian Union. The "Sardar@150" campaign will focus on five key themes viz. Unity and Nation Building, Good Governance, Empowering Youth, Rural Development, and Cultural Integrity.

In line with this national initiative, the A&N Administration will organize a series of commemorative events across the Islands focusing on National Integration, Good Governance, and Public Service. These will include seminars, essay and painting competitions, heritage walks, cleanliness drives, plantation campaigns, sports meet, exhibitions, and awareness programmes at schools, colleges, and community centers.

To mark the 'Rashtriya Ekta Diwas' (National Unity Day) on October 31, commemorating the 150th Birth Anniversary of Sardar Vallabhbhai Patel, and to promote the spirit of unity, integrity and national integration among the citizens, a 'Run for Unity' will be organized by A&N Administration tomorrow (Oct. 31) at 6 am from Netaji Stadium main gate. The run will follow the route: Netaji Stadium - Clock Tower - Bengali Club - SVPNC Office - Aberdeen Bazar - and back to Netaji Stadium as the finishing point. All participants have been requested to report at the venue by 5.50 am. Before the start of the 'Unity Run', a Unity Pledge will be administered to the participants at the starting point, underscoring the importance of maintaining the sovereignty, peace and integrity of the nation, encouraging citizens to pledge their commitment to 'Unity in Diversity'. The "Sardar@150" celebrations will be observed across all districts and Islands with Unity Runs, Pledge Ceremonies, and Mass Participation Events.

Meanwhile, the Department of Art & Culture, as part of 'Rashtriya Ekta Diwas' will be organising a patriotic song program at District Jail, Prothrapur tomorrow (Oct. 31) at 3.30 pm. An on the spot quiz befitting the occasion will also be organised for the visitors of Cellular Jail in the forenoon tomorrow.

To ensure wide reach and active participation in the Sardar@150 celebrations, a dedicated page shall be created on the MY Bharat portal. The main MY Bharat homepage will prominently feature a Sardar@150 banner, serving as the gateway to the page. The page will serve as the hub for all events and competitions organized as part of the celebrations, offering an engaging and user-friendly interface to engage in various activities, with a digital trail to all anniversary related content and activities. The page shall host a variety of events, from which the user can navigate to each specific activity page such as Reel Competition, Unity March, Podcasts, and other programs. The Registration for the competition began on Oct. 2 and will be open till Nov. 2.

A&N Administration showcases its maritime vision at India Maritime Week 2025, Mumbai, spotlighting Tourism, Shipping, Ports, Fisheries & the Blue Economy initiatives of the Islands

Mumbai, Oct. 30

The A&N Administration is making its remarkable presence felt at the ongoing India Maritime Week 2025, being held at Mumbai from 24th to 31st October, 2025, by setting up an informative and visually captivating exhibition stall. The stall is highlighting the Administration's ambitious initiatives and developmental projects aimed at transforming the Andaman & Nicobar Islands into a vibrant maritime and tourism blue economy hub.

The stall is showcasing the Islands growing potential as India's eastern maritime frontier and an emerging hub for Ports, shipping, fisheries and sustainable tourism in the Bay of Bengal.

Highlights of the exhibition- Ports & Shipping: Modernisation of Port Infrastructure and expansion of harbour sector, foreshore sector, inter-Island and mainland- Island sector shipping services including passenger cargo operations and digital port operations. The immense potential of constructing Yacht Marinas and Cruise Terminals turned out to be an investor treat.

Tourism and Cruise promotion: Visuals of the Islands scenic beauty, diving destinations, inviting investments and collaboration in ecofriendly maritime and coastal tourism. There was an overwhelming response on the emphasis made towards developing Sri Vijaya Puram as a future cruise tourism hub connecting the Island to regional circuits in South-East Asia.

Fisheries Development: Immense potential of the Islands rich marine resources and the Administration initiatives to deep sea fishing, cold chain infrastructure, and fish processing units. The concept of establishing a Tuna Cluster and various Blue Economy initiatives such as Open Sea Cage culture, Seaweed farming and Pearl culture were also showcased, reflecting the Administration's focus on value-added fisheries and sustainable marine resource management.

The Smart Integrated Harbour at Mayabunder drew wide attention from visitors and industry stakeholders for its modern design of Blue, Green and Smart components, focus on multimodal connectivity, sustainability, and economic integration.

Adding an experiential dimension to the display, a Virtual Reality (VR) presentation offered

GREETINGS

On the occasion of the Foundation Day of the Union Territories of Jammu & Kashmir and Ladakh today, I extend my warm greetings and best wishes to the people of these territories residing in the A&N Islands.

The Union Territories of Jammu & Kashmir and Ladakh came into existence on 31st October, 2019. As we commemorate this significant milestone, we celebrate not only the glorious heritage and cultural richness of these regions but also the enduring bonds that unite them with our Islands. These ties embody the spirit of Ek Bharat, Shreshtha Bharat, reinforcing the essence of unity in diversity that defines our great nation.

Both the A& N Islands and the Union Territories of Jammu & Kashmir and Ladakh have faced their unique challenges and celebrated remarkable achievements. Our shared journey of resilience, harmony, and progress continues to inspire us as we collectively move towards the vision of a Viksit Bharat.

On this auspicious occasion, I extend my heartfelt greetings to the residents of Jammu & Kashmir and Ladakh living in the A & N Islands. May this Foundation Day be a moment of pride and a renewed commitment to work together towards realizing the Hon'ble Prime Minister's vision of a Viksit Bharat.
