Celebrating Indian Literature through Theatre Art & Culture Department to organize 'Rangmanch' - Theatre Festival 2025; Entries to be submitted by Sept. 19

Sri Vijaya Puram, Sept. 9

The Department of Art & Culture, A&N Administration will be organizing of a vibrant 'Theatre Festival' scheduled for 25-26 September, 2025 in Sri Vijaya Puram. This cultural initiative aims to spotlight the richness of Indian literature and the power of theatre as a medium for social reflection and artistic expression.

The festival invites cultural associations and theatre groups from across the Islands to participate by presenting stage adaptations of renowned Indian literature, written in any Indian language, but to be performed in Hindi. In addition to the literary adaptations, original plays based on current social themes -such as education, gender equality, mental health, and environmental awareness- are welcome.

Each participating group is required to submit a complete script/screenplay to the Department of Art & Culture for review and approval. The duration of each play should be between 40 to 60 minutes, ensuring a compelling and complete theatrical experience.

Selected entries will be showcased during the festival, offering performers a platform to engage audiences with meaningful narratives and dynamic stagecraft. The Department will provide venue arrangements, basic stage setup, and promotional support to all participating groups.

The last date for submission is 19th September, 2025. Interested cultural associations and theatre groups may contact the Department of Art & Culture for submission guidelines and any other details. This festival promises to be a celebration of India's literary diversity and a tribute to the timeless art of storytelling through theatre.

For further details, one may contact the Artist, (Art & Culture) over phone no 9933241678, a press release from Department of Art & Culture said.

ANIBOCWWB strengthens welfare initiatives for construction workers across Isles

Disburses nearly Rs. 35 crore under various welfare schemes since its inception

Sri Vijaya Puram, Sept. 9

The Andaman & Nicobar Islands Building and Other Construction Workers Welfare Board (ANIBOCWWB) was constituted in 2009 under the provisions of the Building and Other Construction Workers (Regulation of Employment and Conditions of Service) Act, 1996. The Board aims to implement various welfare schemes and social security assistance for eligible building and other construction workers within the territorial jurisdiction of the Andaman and Nicobar Islands.

The "building worker" employed in "building or other construction work" is eligible to be enrolled as a beneficiary under the Building and Other Construction Workers (Regulation of Employment and Conditions of Service) Act, 1996. The relevant extracts of the definitions of "building or other construction work" and "building worker" are as under:

Section 2 (d): "building or other construction work" means the construction, alteration, repairs, maintenance or demolition of or, in relation to, buildings, streets roads, railways, tramway, airfields, irrigation, drainage, embankment and navigation works, flood control works (including storm water drainage works), generation, transmission and distribution of water), oil and gas installation, electric lines, wireless, radio, television, telephone, telegraph and overseas communications, dams, canals, reservoirs, watercourses, tunnels, bridges, viaducts, aqueducts, pipelines, towers, cooling towers, transmission towers and such other work as may be specified in this behalf by the appropriate Government, by notification but does not include any building and other construction work to which the provisions of the Factories Act, 1948 (63 of 1948), or in the Mines Act, 1952 (35 of 1952) apply.

'Awareness-cum-Spot Registration Campaign' organized by Labour Deptt. for registering unorganized workers

Section 2 (e): "building worker" means a person who is employed to do any skilled, semi-skilled or unskilled, manual, supervisory, technical or clerical work for hire or reward, whether the terms of employment be expressed or implied in connection with any building or other construction work.

The A&N Administration vide Notification dated 8th January, 2013, specifies the following works are included under the definition of the building and other construction works viz. Sewage and Plumbing, Wood Work and Carpentry, Painting and Varnishing, Glass/Halocline Paneling and Aluminum Works, Grill and Fabrication, Tiles Fixing, Electrical Work, Hollow Block and Brick manufacturing and Breaking and Crushing of Stone.

Eligibility Criteria for Registration as a Beneficiary Worker under the ANIBOCWWB:

- ♦ The individual must be between 18 and 60 years of age.
- ♦ The worker must have been engaged in building or construction work for at least 90 days in the
