The Government has renamed the capital of Andaman & Nicobar Islands Port Blair as "Sri Vijaya Puram". The Prime Minister, Shri Narendra Modi emphasised that the name "Sri Vijaya Puram" pays tribute to the heroic people of the Andaman and Nicobar Islands and symbolizes a break from colonial legacies. Reacting to a tweet on X by Home Minister, Shri Amit Shah, Shri Modi wrote: "The name Sri Vijaya Puram honours the rich history and heroic people of Andaman and Nicobar Islands. It also reflects our commitment to break free from the colonial mindset and celebrate our heritage."

Union Home Minister and Minister of Cooperation, Shri Amit Shah in a post on 'X' said, inspired by the vision of Prime Minister Shri Narendra Modi Ji, to free the nation from the colonial imprints, we have decided to rename Port Blair as "Sri Vijaya Puram." Union Home Minister said that while the earlier name had a colonial legacy, Sri Vijaya Puram symbolises the victory achieved in our freedom struggle and the A&N Islands' unique role in the same. He added that Andaman & Nicobar Islands have an unparalleled place in our freedom struggle and history. The Island territory that once served as the naval base of the Chola Empire is today poised to be the critical base for our strategic and development aspirations.

Shri Amit Shah said that it is also the place that hosted the first unfurling of our Tiranga by Netaji Subhash Chandra Bose Ji and also the Cellular Jail in which Veer Savarkar Ji and other freedom fighters struggled for an independent nation.

Mock Drill on Shore Line Cleanup conducted by A & N Administration & ICG

Sri Vijaya Puram, Sept. 14

The Port Management Board, in collaboration with the Indian Coast Guard, organized a mock drill on Shoreline Cleanup Campaign at the Phoenix Bay Wharf shore area on Sept.12, 2024. The motto of the mock drill was conducted for removal of oil spillage from the sea shore line. During the course of exercise, the Departments like PBMC, PMB, Police, Forest joined hands together. Approximately, 500 participants from various organizations, including the PMB, Andaman Labour Force, Indian Coast Guard, CISE, PBMC, and students from Pondicherry University, took part in the event.

Participants witnessed demonstration on oil pollution response techniques and enhancing overall preparedness. At the end, the entire team moved to the shore line and collected biodegradable and non-biodegradable waste of approx 2 tonnes which consisted of plastic, glass bottles, cloth, wooden log and plank and the degradable waste. 120 dedicated PBMC staff under the guidance of their Nodal Officer (Disaster) segregated the entire garbage and placed it in the separate waste bags and transported it for its safe disposal in an organized manner.

The Deputy Inspector General, P. B. Mandal, TM, Commander, Coast Guard District Headquarters, South &

Little Andaman, CGDHQ-14 addressed the gathering and created awareness on the effective management of oil pollution, particularly mitigating oil spills reaching the shoreline. The preventive measures adopted to contain and respond to such oil spills was emphasized. He also stressed the importance of collaboration amongst all stakeholders/volunteers as part of the Crisis Management Group (CMG). During the event, the ICG Officials also demonstrated various equipments to be deployed during the oil spills reaching the shoreline and requirements for enhancing over all preparedness, a press release from PMB said.
