Raksha Mantri inaugurates 41st Indian Coast Guard Commanders' Conference in New Delhi

ICG is India's foremost guard ensuring security of our vast coastline: RM

Exhorts ICG to become a technology-oriented force to deal with conventional & future threats

New Delhi, Sept. 24 (PIB)

Raksha Mantri, Shri Rajnath Singh inaugurated the 41st edition of Indian Coast Guard (ICG) Commanders' Conference in New Delhi today. The three-day meeting serves as a vital forum for ICG Commanders to engage in meaningful discussions on strategic, operational & administrative matters in the backdrop of the evolving geopolitical landscapes and complexities of maritime security. Addressing the senior Commanders at the Coast Guard Headquarters, the

Raksha Mantri described ICG as India's foremost guard, ensuring the security of the country's vast coastline through constant monitoring of the Exclusive Economic

Zone, and prevention of illegal activities such as terrorism and trafficking of arms, drugs & humans. Commending the bravery & dedication with which the ICG personnel serve the nation in the times of distress, he paid tributes to the bravehearts who lost their lives in a recent operation near Porbandar. Shri Rajnath Singh termed the contribution of ICG in protecting the nation from internal disasters as unparalleled. He extolled its quick response during an oil spill off Chennai after Cyclone Michaung, which averted a major damage to the coastal ecosystem of the area.

Sharing his vision to make ICG as one of the strongest Coast Guards, the Raksha Mantri emphasised the need to move forward from being a human-oriented to a technology-oriented force to deal with conventional as well as emerging threats in today's unpredictable times. He underlined the importance of ultra-modern technology on maritime borders, stating that it acts as a force multiplier to further strengthen the security system of the country.

Swachhata Hi Sewa Campaign 2024 -A step towards more sustainable & cleaner A&N Islands

Secretary (RD/Panchayat) appeals to citizens to practice source segregation of waste at individual household level

Sri Vijaya Puram, Sept. 24

The Directorate of Rural Development (RD), PRIs, and Urban Local Bodies (ULBs) of A&N Administration, under the visionary leadership of the Secretary (RD/Panchayat) is actively conducting the Swachhata Hi Sewa Campaign-2024. The Gram Panchayats and Blocks of the UT of A&N Islands in collaboration with Line Departments, NGOs, and other key stakeholders are successfully conducting various activities in their jurisdiction. This year's campaign is centred around three key pillars: Swachhata (Participation in Cleanliness), Sampoorna Swachhata (Complete Cleanliness) and Swachhata Lakshya Ekayi (Targeted Cleanliness) and Safai Mitra Suraksha Shivirs. These pillars aim to promote community participation, ensure comprehensive cleanliness, and address specific cleanliness challenges.

As part of the Swachhata Ki

Bhaagidari initiative, Gram Panchayat Calicut organized a street play at Calicut Primary School, where 30 enthusiastic students participated. The performance, focused on cleanliness and hygiene, successfully captured public attention and raised awareness about the importance of maintaining clean surroundings. The event was attended by students, teachers, Pradhan, PRIs, and Gram Panchayat officials, creating a meaningful community connection and making the event a grand success.

Under the Swachhata Lakshya Ekayi pillar, 111 black spots were identified across the Union Territory, of which 27 have already been cleaned, significantly improving the environmental conditions of these areas. The campaign also prioritizes the safety and dignity of sanitation workers. Through Safai Mitra Suraksha Shivirs, sanitation workers of various Gram Panchayats were provided with PPE kits, Dignity Cards, and health check-ups, in collaboration with the Health Department.
