MESSAGE

On World Tourism Day i.e. on 27th September, I extend my warmest greetings to the people of the Andaman and Nicobar Islands and to all who admire the pristine beauty of our remarkable lands. This year's theme, "Tourism and Peace," serves as a powerful reminder of how tourism can cultivate harmony, understanding, and unity among diverse cultures.

The Andaman and Nicobar Islands, with their stunning landscapes, rich cultural heritage, and vibrant marine life, are a shining example of the beautiful coexistence between nature and humanity. Our islands are more than just a destination; they embody serenity, drawing visitors from around the globe who seek peace and rejuvenation.

When approached with responsibility, tourism has the potential to bridge cultures, foster mutual respect, and generate economic opportunities that uplift local communities. It is our shared duty to ensure that our tourism practices honour our natural environment, respect our cultural traditions, and enhance the well-being of our people.

As we celebrate World Tourism Day, let us renew our commitment to sustainable and inclusive tourism. Let us work together to present the Andaman and Nicobar Islands as a beacon of peaceful tourism, where every visitor departs with a deeper appreciation for both nature and humanity.

I am confident that with the concerted efforts and coordination of all stakeholders in the A & N Islands, we will emerge as a 'shining example' of promoting peace through tourism, inspires a World where harmony and understanding flourish.

Jai Hind!

OFFICE OF THE DISTRICT REGISTERING AUTHORITY, SOUTH ANDAMAN AND DEPUTY COMMISSIONER, SOUTH ANDAMAN Sri Vijaya Puram dated the September 25, 2024 ORDER

WHEREAS, It has come to the notice of the undersigned that certain private medical practitioners/doctors are issuing medical rest/medical leave certificates with malafide intent without adequately verifying the factual details of the cases which creates unnecessary hindrances in government operations.

AND WHEREAS, many of such certificates issued with malafide intentions by private doctors have been rejected by the Medical Board of Government Hospitals. Moreover, many government doctors have also raised the issue time and again at different forums. Moreover, such unethical/wrong practices also tend to tarnish the reputation of the entire medical fraternity.

AND WHEREAS, It is essential that all medical practitioners should meticulously verify the reasons provided by individuals seeking medical leave and ensure that certificates issued by them are based on accurate and genuine assessment. Certificates issued without proper verification, especially those with malafide intentions, compromise the integrity of medical documentation and contribute to operational inefficiencies both in public and private sector activities.

NOW THEREFORE, keeping in view the reports and findings, I, Arjun Sharma, IAS, Chairman, District Registering Authority, South Andaman under the powers conferred upon me by the Clinical Establishment (Registration and Regulations) Act, 2010 and Andaman and Nicobar Islands Clinical Establishment (Registration and Regulations) Rules, 2013 hereby warn that if any case is brought to the knowledge of the undersigned wherein medical certificates have been issued with malafide intentions by private doctors and have been subsequently rejected by the Medical Board of a Government Hospital, stringent action will be taken against such medical practitioners. Such actions may inter-alia include, cancellation of their registration under the Clinical Establishment Act also. The government doctors are also advised to report any cases of incorrect or false medical leave certifications to the undersigned for further action in accordance with the Clinical Establishment Act.

This order be disseminated in general public for awareness and to all medical practitioners for taking note.
