"WORLD VETERINARY DAY- 2025"

I am delighted to note that World Veterinary Day 2025 is being observed on April 26th in the Andaman & Nicobar Islands, in harmony with the global celebration of the vital contributions of veterinary professionals. This day is a tribute to their unwavering efforts in advancing animal health, promoting animal welfare and safeguarding public health.

This year's theme, "Animal Health Takes a Team," is a powerful reminder that achieving optimal animal healthcare and welfare is a collaborative endeavor. It calls for the combined expertise of veterinarians, researchers, allied professionals and technicians - all working together to provide the highest standard of veterinary care. Effective teamwork fosters a supportive and dynamic environment, ultimately enhancing outcomes for both animals and society.

Animal health is a multifaceted discipline. Its impact extends beyond the wellbeing of animals to influence public health, trade and national security. In this collective effort, we must not forget the indispensable role of livestock farmers - the foundation of any successful animal health strategy.

As we celebrate World Veterinary Day, let us reaffirm our appreciation for the collaborative spirit of veterinary practice and acknowledge the essential roles played by every member of the animal healthcare team.

I extend my heartfelt best wishes to all veterinarians and allied professionals on this occasion. May your continued dedication bring lasting improvements to animal lives and contribute meaningfully to a healthier, more sustainable world.

Electricity Department appeals to Electricity Consumers of Sri Vijaya Puram and adjoining areas of South Andaman for judicious usage of power and restrict wastage of power

Sri Vijaya Puram, Apr. 25

It is to bring to the kind notice of general public that in view of ensuing summer and due to increase in ambient temperature, there has been a significant increase in the power demand particularly during evening peak hours from 05.30 PM to 10.30 PM in Sri Vijaya Puram and adjoining areas of South Andaman. As a result, there is a temporary shortfall in the power supply during these hours.

All the consumers of Electricity Department have been advised to use the energy judiciously in view of shortage of power particularly during evening peak hours. Further, usage of major power guzzlers like ACs, Motors, OTGs, Greaser, Garden lighting etc. may kindly be avoided during evening peak hours from 05.30 PM to 10.30 PM and requested to switch off unnecessary electrical appliances when not in use. This would help the Department to maintain power supply in Sri Vijaya Puram and adjoining areas of South Andaman without curtailment.

The Electricity Department is committed to monitor the situation for effective compliance and may conduct checks to ensure effective Demand Side Management measures being followed, a press release from Electricity Department said.

Report narcotics, seek support: MANAS helplines empower citizens across A&N Islands

Do you have a tip for NCB ?

If you have any information regarding drug-related matters, then come forward & share it with NCB. The identity & all the information provided by citizens will remain confidential.

You may also submit a tip via email: info.ncbmanas@gov.in

Sri Vijaya Puram, Apr. 25
In a significant initiative to address both mental health concerns and the growing menace of drug abuse, the Narcotics Control Bureau under Govt. of India urges citizens to utilize two dedicated helplines operating under the MANAS (Madak Padarth Nishedh Asuchna Kendra) Portal. This initiative provides a user-friendly, 24x7 platform for citizens to report drug-related matters. The helplines serve two distinct yet crucial purposes: mental health support (Helpline Nos. 14416 or 1-800-891-4416) and narcotics control (Helpline No. 1933).

This platform enables users to report drug peddling, trafficking or seek assistance for issues such as drug abuse and de-addiction. The web-based application developed by the Narcotics Control Bureau (NCB), New Delhi serves as an interface between the general public and law enforcement agencies. It can be accessed at <https://ncbmanas.gov.in>.

The Andaman and Nicobar Police urges citizens to make responsible use of these services-whether by seeking help for mental wellness or reporting narcotics-related activities-to help protect our communities and ensure a safer environment in the region. Let us unite for a mentally healthy and drug-free India, a press release from SSP (CID) said.
