PM inaugurates 46th Session of World Heritage Committee at Bharat Mandapam, New Delhi

"India's vision is development as well as heritage- Vikas bhi Virasat bhi": PM

New Delhi, July 21 (PIB)

The Prime Minister, Shri Narendra Modi inaugurated the 46th Session of the World Heritage Committee at Bharat Mandapam in New Delhi today. The World Heritage Committee meets annually and is responsible for managing all matters on World Heritage and deciding on sites to be inscribed on the World Heritage list. India is hosting the World Heritage Committee Meeting for the first time. The Prime Minister also took a walkthrough of various exhibitions showcased on the occasion. Addressing the occasion, the Prime Minister noted the auspicious occasion of Guru Purnima and conveyed his best wishes to all citizens. He expressed delight that the World Heritage Committee meeting is commencing on such an auspicious day and India is hosting the event for the first time. The Prime Minister extended a warm welcome to all the dignitaries and guests from around the world, especially the Director General of UNESCO, Ms Audrey Azoulay and expressed confidence that the World Heritage Committee meeting will script new records in history similar to other global meets in India. Referring to the artifacts returned from abroad, the Prime Minister mentioned that more than 350 heritage items have been brought back in recent times. "This return of ancient heritage artifacts is a display of global generosity and respect for history", the Prime Minister said. He also pointed out the growing research and tourism opportunities in the field as the technology progresses. Applauding the World Heritage Committee, the Prime Minister said that hosting this program is a matter of pride for India. He highlighted that North East India's historic Maidam has been nominated to enter UNESCO's popular World Heritage List. "This is India's 43rd

World Heritage Site and North East India's first heritage to get the status of Cultural World Heritage," Shri Modi said, expressing belief that Maidam with its unique cultural significance will become more popular and gain more traction after bagging a place in the list. The Prime Minister said that the presence of experts from all around the world showcases the scope and capability of the Summit. He emphasized that the organization is being hosted on the land which is one of the oldest living civilizations in the world. Noting that the world holds various centers of heritage, the Prime Minister threw light on India's ancient eras and said, "India is so ancient that every point of time in the present moment is a reflection of its glorious past." Referring to the capital of India, New Delhi, the Prime Minister said that it is the center of thousands of years of heritage and one can find heritage and history at every step of the way. The Prime Minister asserted "India's history and sense of history are older and more elaborate than the normal, leading to the need for new perspectives to witness the past with technological developments and new discoveries". He mentioned findings of Sinauli in Uttar Pradesh, where copper age findings are closer to Vedic Age rather than the Indus Valley Civilization. He talked about the discovery of a 4000-year-old horse-driven chariot. Such discoveries stress that in order to know India, there is a need for prejudice-free new concepts, the Prime Minister said, inviting the gathering to be part of this new stream.

Underlining the significance of heritage, the Prime Minister said, "Heritage is not only history. Rather a shared consciousness of humanity. Whenever we look at historical sites, it lifts our mind from the current geo-political factors." He encouraged people to use this potential of heritage for the betterment of the world, using them to connect hearts. "It is India's clarion call to the world to come together to promote each others' heritage and amplify the spirit of human welfare, encourage tourism and create more job opportunities through the 46th World Heritage Committee meeting," Shri Modi added.

Recalling a time when heritage was ignored in the pursuit of development, the Prime Minister said today, India's vision is development as well as heritage- Vikas bhi Virasat bhi. Elaborating on the pride in heritage pledge during the last 10 years, the Prime Minister mentioned unprecedented steps such as Kashi Viswanath Corridor, Shri Ram Mandir, Modern Campus of ancient Nalanda University. "This resolve of India regarding heritage is linked with the feeling of serving the entire humanity. Indian culture talks about us, not just about self", he added.

The Prime Minister reiterated that India considers the preservation of global heritage as its responsibility. That is why, the Prime Minister said, we are cooperating for heritage conservation in the countries of the Global South along with Indian heritage. He mentioned heritage sites like Angkor Wat in Cambodia, Cham Temples in Vietnam, and Stupa in Bagan, Myanmar and announced that India will contribute 1 million dollars to the UNESCO World Heritage Centre to be used for capacity building, technical assistance and conservation of world heritage sites. He underlined that this money will be useful for the countries of the Global South. He also informed that a certificate program in World Heritage Management is also being started for young professionals in India. The Prime Minister expressed confidence that India's cultural and creative industry will become a big factor in global growth.

Online awareness session on Sexual Harassment of Women at Workplace (Prevention, Prohibition and Redressal) Act 2013 conducted by DSW

Port Blair, July 21

One Stop Centre under the Directorate of Social Welfare organized an online awareness session on Sexual Harassment of Women at Workplace (Prevention, Prohibition and Redressal) Act 2013. Dr. Nitin Shakya, Director (SW), emphasized to create awareness among the women employees regarding various provisions of the POSH Act for the safety and security of working women.

Smti. Meenal Rajan, Case Worker, OSC, briefed the participants on the objectives of the One Stop Centre scheme. The scheme provides emergency and non-emergency services under one roof to combat all forms of violence against women. Through phased counseling, the One Stop Centre offers strategies to deal with various problems and helps women establish favorable relationships with their families.

Smt Santhi Murugesan, Central Administrator, One Stop Centre under the Directorate of Social Welfare, dwelt at length on Vishaka guidelines, which was in force before the enactment of present Sexual Harassment of Women at Workplace (Prevention, Prohibition and Redressal) Act 2013, which indented to protect women at workplace. She elaborated on the important definitions of sexual harassment, aggrieved women, work place and key elements of workplace, formal and informal redressal within the purview of the Act.

During the session, she also briefed about the Constitution of Internal Complaint Committee, including Presiding Officer and external member's eligibility criteria. Further, elaborated on Redressal Mechanism of Complaint, enquiry of complaint, duties of Internal Complaints Committee and Local Complaints Committee. She highlighted that, this Act provides a secure and encouraging work place that uphold women's entitlement to equal opportunity and status of work, a press release from Directorate of Social Welfare said.

A&N Police rescues 3 fishermen stranded on Nicholson Island (near Swaraj Dweep)

Port Blair, July 21

The Andaman & Nicobar Police received information from Indian Coast Guard Head Quarters yesterday at around 2030 hrs that 3 fishermen are stranded on Nicholson Island (near Swaraj Dweep) due to grounding of their boat. Immediately information was transmitted to the senior officers and a combined Rescue Team consisting of personnel from Police Station Swaraj Dweep and Police Marine Force was formed.

The Rescue Team promptly departed in the middle of the night to search for the stranded fishermen, with the help of location shared by the Coast Guard, Control Room. As a result of pro-active efforts and night-time valiant Rescue operation, 3 fishermen of Port Blair were successfully rescued in the night, at around 11 pm. The rescued fishermen are Shri. Ashok Dutta, aged 47, R/o Lillypur, Haddo, Vinod Kindo, aged 42, R/o Ferrargunj and Christopher Bara, aged 36 of Namunagar.

It has been found that the fishermen were travelling from Port Blair in their fishing dinghy on 17.07.2024, when their dinghy got stuck on shore of Nicholson Island, due to inclement weather and rough swell. This damaged the fishing boat and caused significant leakage and therefore, the fishermen got stranded at Nicholson Island, due to inclement weather and rough sea conditions.

The rescued fishermen were brought to Swaraj Dweep and extended necessary medical aid at PHC Swaraj Dweep. Efforts are now underway to salvage the damaged boat from the site of wreck.

The prompt response and brave efforts of the Police team by putting their own lives at risk during the dark hours and inclement weather ensured safety and well-being of fishermen. It once again bores testimony to the Motto of Andaman and Nicobar Police 'Nirbhaya-Nipun-Nishpaksha'

The Director General of Police, ANI, Shri Devesh Chandra Srivastva, IPS applauded the humanitarian efforts of the Police Rescue team for their exemplary professionalism and fearlessness in rescuing the fishermen in the late Night Search Operation and announced for suitable reward to the brave police personnel, a press release from SP (SA) said.
