Legendary Indian Wicketkeeper-Batter and former Captain MS Dhoni has been inducted into the prestigious ICC Hall of Fame, marking another glorious chapter in his storied cricket career. The International Cricket Council announced that Dhoni was among seven cricketers honoured this year, which included greats like Matthew Hayden (Australia) and Hashim Amla (South Africa). Celebrated for his calm under pressure and unmatched tactical nous, but also a trailblazer in the shorter formats, MS Dhoni's legacy as one of the game's greatest finishers, leaders and wicketkeepers has been honoured with his induction into the International Cricket Council (ICC) Cricket Hall of Fame. With 17,266 international runs, 829 dismissals and 538 matches across formats for India, Dhoni's numbers reflect not just excellence but extraordinary consistency, fitness and longevity.

Dhoni, who led India to three major ICC titles - the 2007 T20 World Cup, 2011 ODI World Cup, and the 2013 Champions Trophy - was celebrated by the International Cricket Council (ICC) for his "calm under pressure and unmatched tactical nous," as well as his trailblazing influence in the shorter formats of the game.

Reacting to the honour, Dhoni expressed heartfelt gratitude. He said it is an honour to be named in the International Cricket Council (ICC) Hall of Fame, which recognises the contributions of cricketers across generations and from all over the world. To have your name remembered alongside such all-time greats is a wonderful feeling. It is something that I will cherish forever, he added.
