Deptt. of AH&VS provides hands on training & inputs to farmers through Departmental farms Distributes Vanaraja, Nicobari, Japanese quail chicks & ducklings

Sri Vijaya Puram, Feb. 28

With the aim to promote poultry keeping for income generation and sustainable livelihood, the Department of AH&VS provides hands on training and inputs to the farmers/unemployed youth/women candidate through the Departmental farms established in different parts of the Islands. Duck keeping and vanaraja birds have been promoted as backyard poultry due to low cost of production and their ability to thrive in free range condition. The dual purpose breed of poultry vanaraja birds and ducks are known for their egg production as well as meat and therefore, gained popularity among the rural farmers. It is a source of livelihood while it contributes the protein requirement in nutrition.

As part of efforts to encourage sustainable livelihood through Animal Husbandry, in tourist destinations, the Department distributed 200 nos. of day old Vanaraja chicks, 100 nos. of Nicobari chicks, 400 nos. of Ducklings and 200 nos. of day old Japanese Quail chicks at Shaheed Dweep today. Similarly, 1400 nos. of day old vanaraja
