Atal Pension Yojana: Securing the future of the Unorganized Sector

14079 persons enrolled under the pension scheme in A&N Islands so far

Staff Correspondent

Sri Vijaya Puram, May 18

The Atal Pension Yojana (APY) is a pension scheme for the workers in the unorganized sector. As per the scheme, people can make contributions in their Atal Pension Yojana account till the age of 60 years and get a monthly pension. The APY focuses on all citizens in the unorganized sector, who join the National Pension System (NPS) administered by the Pension Fund Regulatory and Development Authority (PFRDA). As per the data provided by Lead Bank, Sri Vijaya Puram, altogether, 14079 persons have been enrolled under the universal social security scheme 'Atal Pension Yojana' in A&N Islands as on 30.04.2025 by all banks of A&N Islands.

Under APY, the subscribers would receive fixed minimum pension of Rs. 1000 per month, Rs. 2000 per month, Rs. 3000 per month, Rs. 4000 per month, Rs. 5000 per month, at the age of 60 years, depending on their contributions, which itself would be based on the age of joining the APY. The minimum age of joining APY is 18 years and maximum age is 40 years. The age of exit and start of pension would be 60 years. Therefore, minimum period of contribution by any subscriber under APY would be 20 years or more. The benefit of fixed minimum pension would be guaranteed by the Government. APY is open to all bank account holders with auto debit facility to accounts, leading to reduction in contribution collection charges. The subscribers should keep the required balance in their savings bank accounts on the stipulated due dates to avoid any late payment penalty. Due dates for monthly contribution payment is arrived based on the deposit of first contribution amount. In case of repeated defaults for specified period, the account is liable for foreclosure and the GoI co-contributions, if any shall be forfeited. Also, any false declaration about his/her eligibility for benefits under this

Vehicle owners urged to update Aadhaar authenticated mobile number for various vahan related services & alert messages

Sri Vijaya Puram, May 18

Vehicle owners have been informed that due to lack of updated communication records, such as mobile numbers of vehicle owners in the database, important vehicle related alerts messages and notices are not being delivered to the owner leading to significant consequences, including the non-receipt of critical renewal reminders e.g. PUC, Insurance, e-Challan notices and tax defaults etc. Hence, all vehicle owners have been requested to update their Aadhaar authenticated mobile number for carrying out various vahan related services and alert messages. PUCs have also been requested to provide the services after ensuring that vehicle owner's Aadhaar authenticated mobile number is updated in Vahan portal, a press release from Directorate of Transport said.

District Administration (Nicobars) organizes first-ever 'Tribal Haat' in Campbell Bay

Haat provided platform to showcase a wide range of Nicobari handicrafts and traditional products created by tribal SHGs

Car Nicobar, May 18

Under the visionary leadership of the Chief Secretary, Dr. Chandra Bhushan Kumar, IAS, the District Administration of Nicobar successfully organised the first-ever 'Tribal Haat' in Campbell Bay yesterday. The initiative, conducted in collaboration with the Tribal Council, Integrated Tribal Development Project (ITDP), and the Rural Development Department, aimed to celebrate and promote the rich tribal culture, craftsmanship, and produce of the Nicobar Islands. Organised under the guidance of Shri Amit Kale, IAS, Deputy Commissioner, Nicobar District, the event was inaugurated jointly by Dr. Keshav Singh, Assistant Commissioner, Campbell Bay, and Shri Shekhar Rai, Block Development Officer, Campbell Bay in the presence of Shri Barnabas Manju, Chairman of the Tribal Council for Great & Little Nicobar Islands. The Tribal Haat served as a vibrant platform to showcase a wide range of Nicobari handicrafts and traditional products created by tribal Self-Help Groups (SHGs). The stalls displayed virgin coconut oil, the traditional handmade Nicobari hodi (canoe), colourful pillows, intricate embroidery work, finely woven bamboo and cane baskets, as well as locally grown fruits and vegetables. An impressive spread of ethnic food items added flavour to the event, drawing visitors from all sections of the community.

Professional development program on 'Student Psychology and Counseling Skills' concludes at DBRAIT

Sri Vijaya Puram, May 18

A five-day Professional Development Program (PDP) on 'Student Psychology and Counseling Skills' concluded yesterday at Dr. B. R. Ambedkar Institute of Technology (DBRAIT), Sri Vijaya Puram. The program, held from 13th to 17th May, 2025, was organized in association with the National Institute of Technical Teachers Training and Research (NITTTR), Chennai.

Dr. Renuka Devi, HOD (Education), and Dr. P. Malliga, HOD (CSE) from NITTTR Chennai, conducted sessions on tools and techniques for assessing students' cognitive abilities, IQ, and emotional intelligence. The sessions also featured practical demonstrations of effective counseling methods tailored to students with diverse psychological needs.

Approximately 40 faculty members participated in the training program. The skills and knowledge acquired through this initiative are expected to significantly enhance the participants' ability to understand and address student challenges more effectively in both academic and professional contexts.

The Principal, DBRAIT addressed the gathering and emphasized the importance of the training program. He highlighted how understanding student psychology and acquiring basic counseling skills are essential for effective teaching and mentoring. He further encouraged the faculty to incorporate the insights and techniques gained from the training into their daily interactions with students to enhance the overall learning environment.

The program concluded with a vote of thanks delivered by a faculty member of DBRAIT, expressing gratitude to the resource persons, organizers, and participants for their active involvement and support in making the event a success, a press release from DBRAIT said.

District Administration (Nicobars) ...

This initiative is a significant step towards empowering the tribal community, encouraging sustainable livelihoods, and preserving traditional knowledge and art forms. It also provides tribal artisans and farmers a direct platform to connect with the public, thereby improving market access for their products.

The District Administration extends heartfelt appreciation to all participating tribal artisans and SHG members whose creativity, skill, and spirit of entrepreneurship made the event a grand success. Their contribution is instrumental in keeping the Nicobari cultural heritage alive and thriving.

In view of the positive response and enthusiastic participation, it has been decided that the Tribal Haat will now be held on the 15th of every month. This regular platform will continue to support the tribal community by facilitating the sale and promotion of indigenous products and crafts, thus fostering economic self-reliance and cultural pride, a press release from DC (Nicobars) said.

3rd Death Anniversary

On 19.05.2025

In loving memory of

Late Brij Lal, R/o Dolly Gunj

"Time may pass, but the love we have for you will never fade. Today it has been 03 years since you left us and took your abode in heaven. Dad, you may have left this world, but your guidance and love remain etched in our lives forever."

OBITUARY

The Middle Andaman Forest Division deeply mourn the passing of Sree Kumar, HGC, a valued ex member of our department, who left us too soon on the afternoon of 18.05.2025.

Sree Kumar served with unwavering commitment and integrity, discharging all his duties with the utmost dedication and sincerity. His contributions to the office and his respectful nature earned him the admiration and affection of his colleagues and superiors alike.

His loss is felt deeply by all who had the privilege of working with him. We extend our heartfelt condolences to his family and loved ones in this time of grief.

May his soul rest in peace.
